

THE FULL MOON

Vol. 25 — No. 10

Albemarle Senior High School, Albemarle, N. C.

October 28, 1960

Enjoy, But Don't Be Scared Stiff

Standing room only is the hopeful expectation of the Junior class in reference to the annual Junior play which is to be presented November 19 in the high school auditorium.

This year's play is entitled "Scared Stiff". It is a three-act mystery comedy about treasure hunters and an old haunted house.

Assisting the Juniors this year will be Mrs. T. L. Cashwell, wife of a local Baptist minister. She thinks this year's play will be a "hit", especially with such big name stars of the Junior class as Sylvia Wall, Brenda Morris, Sheila Harris, Johnny Garrison, Hinky Tucker, Faye Bauers, Lester Bivens, Nancy Russell, and Eddie McLester.

As of the writing of this article there still remain three vacancies in the cast. Neither exact time nor the admittance fee has been agreed upon, other than that it will be performed the night of November 19.

Ten Delegates Go To Press Meeting

Ten representatives from the Full Moon and the annual staffs went to Chapel Hill on Saturday for the nineteenth annual North Carolina Scholastic Press Institute. They were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Fry.

Those going from the Full Moon staff were: Frank Casper, Bill Burbage, Suzanne Swindell, Steve Watson, and Nancy Smith. The annual sent Pam Treece, Robert Iddings, Betsy Holbrook, Sandra Holt, and Susan Ausband.

Among the topics covered were: newspaper production, yearbook production, news writing, making columns, sports, advertising, feature writing, and editorials.

The advisor and staff of the Hanoverian of New Hanover High School in Wilmington, winners of top awards in the yearbook field from both the Columbia Scholastic Press and the SIPA, gave a demonstration on "How to Produce a Prize-Winning High School Yearbook".

ASH Goes For Republicans; Elects Nixon As President

Vice-President Richard M. Nixon will be the next President of the United States!—according to a poll taken last week at ASHS, that is.

This poll was conducted on a homeroom basis and was inspired by much curiosity and student interest. The results show the most ardently Republican homerooms to be Mr. Nye's tenth grade and Mrs. Deese's eleventh grade. Mr. Hatley's sophomores and Miss Caughman's seniors proved to sway towards the Democratic party.

Students were asked whom they would vote for if they were of age and why they would vote for that particular candidate. Also included in the poll was the question of whom the parents were planning to vote for. No names were to be signed.

All three classes at ASHS — senior, junior, and sophomore — had majorities saying that they would cast their vote for Nixon. Various reasons were given for their decisions, but one of the important ones was the Catholic faith of Mr. Kennedy.

Answers to the poll indicated that many students would cast their vote for a different candidate from their parents. Also discovered was the fact that many parents disagree on this political question. In many cases the

NEW MEMBERS OF NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

These outstanding students at Albemarle Senior High School were tapped for membership into the local chapter of the National Honor Society during ceremonies Wednesday afternoon in the school auditorium. Seated, left to right, are: Karen Herndon, Mary Sikes, Inger Blomfelt, and Jo Lynn Pickler. Standing, left to right, are: Suzanne Swindell, Judy Chandler, Kenneth Furr, Louise Furr, and Trina Holt. Dr. B. L. Parkinson delivered the principal address of the service.

National Honor Society Taps Eight Outstanding Seniors — 1 Boy, 7 Girls

President, Veep Attend Congress

Kennie Furr, Jeff Underwood, and Mrs. Young attended the N. C. State Council Congress in Asheville Monday and Tuesday.

Outstanding students from North Carolina led discussion groups on the duties of Student Council officers, purposes and aims of the Student Council, how to get a new Student Council off to a good start, and how the Student Council can set up a successful year-long program.

Mr. Charlie Phillips, director of Public Instruction, Woman's College, made the keynote address.

Eight outstanding ASHS seniors were tapped into the National Honor Society during impressive ceremonies Wednesday afternoon in the school auditorium.

Selected to receive this high honor were Trina Holt, Jo Lynn Pickler, Kennie Furr, Judy Chandler, Louise Furr, Suzanne Swindell, Karen Herndon, and Mary Sikes. Inger Blomfelt, Swedish foreign exchange student, was given honorary membership.

Robert Iddings, president of the local chapter, presided over the installation ceremony. After the singing of "Holy, Holy, Holy" by the student body, Mary Hill Hatley led a short devotional period. Steve Burleson sang a special solo accompanied by June Whitley at the piano.

Dr. B. L. Parkinson, the speaker for the occasion, stressed scholarship as the basis for leadership, character, and service.

After the tapping exercise, conducted by the members inducted last spring, Mr. Webb administered the oath of office to the new members. Pam Treece, secretary, then called the current roll.

Music for the ceremony was presented by Mr. Paul Fry. Mrs. Frank Westerlund, sponsor of the society, directed the ceremony.

Trina, who is serving as chaplain of her homeroom, is a member of the Tri-Hi-Y, the Modern Music Masters, and Monogram Clubs. She has served as president of both her Sunday School class and her M. Y. F.

Jo Lynn, a member of the Tri-Hi-Y for three years, is serving as president of her homeroom. She is a member of the Bible and the Boosters clubs. Jo Lynn sings in the youth choir of her church.

Kennie is president of the student body and is a candidate for a Morehead scholarship. He is also assistant business manager of the Full Moon. Kennie is an Eagle Scout and is president of his Sunday School class.

Judy is vice-president of the Black Masque club. She has taken part in F. T. A., Boosters Club, and the Bible Club. She is now a majorette. Judy sings in the adult choir of her church.

Louise's activities have included Tri-Hi-Y and the Girls' Ensemble. She has been president of her homeroom; vice-president of her homeroom, and vice-presi-

Graduates Of '60 Do Well At School

Many 1960 graduates of ASHS have rated high among freshmen and are taking advanced courses.

In the advanced English course are Charles Brown, at Carolina; Mary Jo Winn, at W. C.; and Pat Clemmer, attending Pfeiffer.

In advanced French courses are Landis Miller and Pam Truett, at Salem; Susan Cashwell, at Meredith; and Linda Heckard, at Greensboro.

Roger Laney, at Davidson, is taking advanced chemistry and English.

Jerry Lou Holbert, who is attending Meredith, made the highest grade on a diagnostic grammar test in her English class and is also taking advanced French.

Eddie Lefler, at N. C. State, qualified for advanced math but is not required to take it. John Burchett, attending Stetson, is taking advanced science and math.

Neil Efrid, at West Point, is taking advanced English and French. He was one of the forty chosen from the eight hundred freshmen to take the advanced English.

Harry Whitley, attending Stetson, is taking advanced French and math.

dent of the freshman class. Louise is active in the choral work of her church.

Suzanne has been active in the Student Council and F. T. A. She is editor of the Full Moon and "big sister" to the foreign exchange student. Suzanne has served actively in her church's youth work.

Karen has been active in the Bible Club, Booster's Club, and various class activities. She is on the literary staff of the Crossroads. She has participated in her church choir and been pianist of her Sunday School.

Mary, who is devotional leader of her homeroom, is active in Modern Music Masters and Bible clubs. She is a member of the photography staff of the Crossroads. Mary has served as president and secretary of her Sunday School class.

Inger Blomfelt was tapped as an honorary member.

22 New Members Recently Installed In MMM Society

Twenty-two new members were inducted into the Modern Music Masters on October 25.

They were Betsy Holbrook, Nancy Langley, Florence Morton, Mary Hill Hatley, Louise Furr, Bobbie Atkins, Jane Boaz, Gail McSwain, June Whitley, Sandra Holt, Trina Holt, Martha Burleson, Miriam Wilhoit, Jane Herlocker, Jane Morton, Carolyn Varner, Sandra Huneycutt, Hinky Tucker, Ronnie Herrin, James Lisk, Paul Allred, and Robert Thorneburg.

Each initiate performed as he wished.

Betsy Holbrook, Nancy Langley, Florence Morton, Mary Hill Hatley, and Louise Furr rendered an arrangement of "Doing What Comes Naturally".

"Friendship's Flower" was sung by Hinky Tucker, Ronnie Herrin, and James Lisk, with Johnny Shelton assisting.

An instrumental group composed of Paul Allred, Sandra Huneycutt, Carolyn Varner, Jane Morton, Robert Thorneburg, Gail McSwain, and Jane Herlocker played "Trumpet Tune".

Jean Rabon joined initiates Martha Burleson and Miriam Wilhoit in singing "Over the Rainbow". Bryan Fox accompanied them on the piano.

Soloists were as follows: Trina Holt sang "A Summer Place"; Sandra Holt played a piano solo entitled "April Love"; June Whitley chose Gershwin Preludes to play as a piano solo; Bobbie Atkins did a baton twirling act; and Jane Boaz played a piano solo, "Theme from the Apartment".

Nancy Finan, president, presided over the installation. Other officers participating were Sherry Pegram, vice-president; June Whitley, secretary; Ellen Hatley, treasurer; and Mary Hill Hatley, historian.

After the performances the new members received their Modern Music Master pins and life membership cards.

By Their Words

"It's so dark in the auditorium early in the morning, I'm beginning to know how a mold feels." —Mrs. Westerlund.

"That was my largest fingernail; you could see it." —Karen Herndon.

"Talk about someone who was a fast talker, she had a machine gun beat!" —Mr. Hatley.

"Of all the meals I hate the most, this is my favorite." —Nancy Finan.

"*?@!xx?#æ." —Jerry Tucker while his head was stuck in the window on the bus.

"Another one of your little bugs just bit me." —Inger Bloomfelt.

"She is so skinny that she has to jump around in the shower to get wet." —Johnny Gehring.

"Johnny, if you don't turn around, you're going to grow crooked." —Mrs. Deese.

"Did anybody get hurt Friday night?" —Robert Lamps referring to the Albemarle-Kannapolis game.

"A teacher has a sixth sense, a seventh sense, and an eighth sense, but never more than ten cents." —Miss Caughman.

"I got a cotton apple." —Florence Morton.

"When I was a boy I had a good time; when I went to school I had a good time; when I was an old man I had a good time.... now, I'm still having a good time." —Mr. Hatley.

"Mr. Chemistry." —Marie Snuggs to Mr. Hatley.

"You look just like a witch that I used to know." —'Zombie' to Nancy Aldridge.

"I caught a yard for two passes." —Kent Montgomery.

"I feel like I smell like dust." —Edee Smith at the Fair.

"Who do you think will win the World Series—the Republicans or the Democrats?" —Kenny Tucker.