Wiles Is Replaced By Pfeiffer Grad

Mrs. John F. Wiles has left the ASHS faculty, and her position is being filled by Mrs. Betty Tesh, a graduate of Pfeiffer College.

Mrs. Wiles is joining her husband who has accepted a position at State College.

Mrs. Tesh and her husband live at Misenheimer, where Mr. Tesh attends Pfeiffer College.

Evaluation Of All Depts. Begins For Re-Accreditation Of High School

Chairmen and members of the A. S. H. S. self-evaluation committees face the tremendous task of evaluating every department in the school to make certain that each one meets the standards set forth by the Southern Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools. The purpose of this evaluation is to insure the continuing membership of A.S. H.S. in the Southern Association which requires all member schools and colleges to undergo periodic re-evaluation.

Each committee will evaluate its own particular department in the area of its program, its facilities, its materials, and the use it makes of all existing facilities and materials.

All work to be done by the committees must be completed before March 15, the date set by the A.S.H.S. administration for the visit of the committee from the Southern Association which re-evaluate the school.

Members of the faculty, parents of students, and students will serve on the self-evaluation committees.

The Steering Committee, head of all the school committees, has as its chairman Principal H. T. Webb. Faculty members serving on this committee are Mr. R. C. Hatley, Mrs. Paul B. Fry, Miss Chicora Caughman and Miss Lillian Misenheimer. Parents serving as members are Mrs. G. R. Wall, Mrs. Staton Williams, Mr. E. F. Wilson, Mr. John Andrew and Reverend Hoyle Allred. Jeff Underwood, Barbara Doby and Steve Smith are the students who will assist this group. All members of the Steering Committee will also serve on the School and Community Committee, the Program of Studies Committee, and the School Staff and Administration Committee.

ATTRACTED TO TOY COUNTER

Deca Club Joins Merchants In Backing 'Keep Your Dollars At Home' Week

"Shop in Albemarle" beginning November 6 and going through November 11 is the project in which the Deca Club will participate.

"Keep your dollars at home" is the main purpose of this project. Local consumers will be encouraged to shop and trade in Albemarle rather than going to another city to do so.

Helping to publicize this event will be students of the Deca Club. Each student was responsible for a skit pertaining to the trade days. Many of these skits will be given on WABZ and WZKY at various times until November 11.

The D. E. Class voted Dean Herrin and Roy Springer's skit the best. Dean and Roy, portraying beatniks finding out about "Shop in Albemarle Week" gave their skit at the Merchants' Meeting on October 17.

Both Dean Herrin and Roy Springer are members of the D. E. Class and are employed in the retail field. Dean works at Lawrence Wheel and Brake Service and Roy, at the Pee Dee Grocery.

Several students in both D. E. and band plan to work up a combo and sing songs in connection with the project. Others plan to dress as clowns and distribute hand bills for merchants. Musicians and clowns will ride on a truck decorated with the theme "Shop in Albemarle". The truck will be parked in front of different stores for an hour and a half each Thursday, Friday, and Saturday.

Five-hundred publicity posters have been given by the Merchants' Division to the D. E. Class to distribute.

Determined that no one will forget these days, D. E. students are going to call everyone whose number is in the telephone book.

Albemarle merchants co-operating with the coming events will distribute hand bills with numbers on them to shoppers. During the week numbers will be placed on the windows of each store. Persons holding lucky numbers will receive reduced rates on certain items in that store. Free prizes will also be given.

Miss Thomas has been a vital member of the committee planning the trade week. On Oct. 17 she attended the Merchants' Meeting in the basement of Home Savings & Loan Association. She and Mr. Don Bennett, head of the Merchants' Division, had charge of the program, which consisted of the following: (1) What the D. E. Club can do to help in this project (2) Asking for further suggestions from merchants (3) Finding out how merchants can and will participate.

Many favorable suggestions were made by the merchants at this meeting. One suggestion was to promote a contest on the radio. In twenty-five words or less, a person would write on a postcard about "Why I like to Shop in Albemarle". Prizes worth up to $50 would be offered.

Miss Thomas was asked to attend a breakfast meeting of the steering committee on October 19, at which time final details for the trade week were worked out.

Two Boys Vying For Scholarships

Lester Bivens and Edward Lowder have been selected to represent ASHS as candidates for the Morehead Scholarships to UNC.

These two boys are now in the process of filling out various applications and forms. Later on the representatives will meet with a committee, who will pick a county finalist.

This year Lester serves as a Student Council Representative for his homeroom. During the month of October, he was selected as the Student Rotarian. As a Junior, Lester was elected treasurer of the Junior class, president of his homeroom, and president of his Hi-Y club. A member of the First Lutheran Church, he is president of the Luther League and president of his Sunday School class.

The Morehead Scholarship is not the only scholarship Edward is competing for; he is a National Merit Scholarship Semi-Finalist. This year, he is vice-president of the National Honor Society, business manager of the Full Moon, and president of his homeroom. Last summer, Edward attended Boys' State, and for the past three years, he has been manager of the football team. He is also an active member of the West Albemarle Baptist Church.
