We'll have to fatten you up next year! I will bring a batch of Ma's home baked biscuits and some home churned butter. I will also bring a few of my bees so we can have fresh honey every morning.

Our school is rather large. We have 43 students. We will have six graduating this year. Our class has the highest drop-out record in the history of the school. We're pretty proud of that.

I take the following subjects in school: Gym VIII, Study Hour II, Elementary Science IV, English I, and Typing XII. Because I'm making such good grades, I have a D— average. Mother is letting me work after school at the grocery store bagging groceries.

Do you have fads going around your school like we do? Everybody here seems to be wearing black leather jackets, black boots, and long side burns, even the girls!

You may have read about our YMCA Club basketball team in the New York Times. All the girls are divided into clubs and the clubs play each other. We have 4 on our team (our's is the smallest team). We have a 6-2 won-lost record. We lost two games at the first of the season because all of our girls except one were gathering cotton. She almost won those two games, except she fouled out in the fourth quarter both times. The scores were 84-87 and 13-12.

When our teams play together, we are really great. We send copies of our plays to 8 of the

Brenda Peeler Is Homecoming Queen

Boyer Named 'Mr. Kneecaps'

Brenda Peeler was crowned 1965 Basketball Homecoming Queen during impressive halftime ceremonies in the ASHS gym January 29; David Boyer was crowned Mr. Kneecaps.

Since Valentine's Day was the theme, 17 girls walked through a big red heart, as they were presented at halftime. All of the girls were dressed in red, white, or pink. The queen was crowned by Kelly Jones, team captain. Cindy Johnson and Jackie White, Senior Class mascots, carried the flowers and crown respectively.

A week's voting and a heated contest were climaxed with the crowning of Mr. Kneecaps, David Boyer. He was crowned by Gayle Byrd, chief cheerleader, and was presented with a trophy after the crowning of the queen during halftime ceremonies.

Homecoming sponsors were Brenda Peeler, Bobby Overcash; Inez Furr, Tommy Smith; Nancy Almond, David Smith; Pam Lowder, J. W. Lisk; Beth Eddins, Tom Webb; Joanne Lisk, Johnny Burleson; Nancy Walker, Kelly Jones; Beth Moose, David Boyer; Gwen Sasser, Johnny Morris; Cynthia Freeman, David Miller; Susan Hopkins, Eugene Coley; Linda Lucas, Joe Rabon; Lin Little, Leon Helms; Penny Furr, Bob Townsend; Ellen Reeves, Mark Cain; Dianne Morton, Randy Burton; and Teresa Yow, Vernell Townsend.
