

CHARLES DANIEL SKIRTS END FOR BULLDOGS

Comets Down Fighting Bulldogs 13-7 In Last SPC; 'Dogs No. 3

Asheboro's Blue Comets, now holding the number one position in the South Piedmont Conference, copped a verdict of 13-7 over the Bulldogs in the local stadium, November 12.

It was the sixth straight win for Asheboro in SPC activity, compared to no losses.

Albemarle holds an over all record of six triumphs, three defeats and one tie, including a 3-2-1 mark in the SPC.

Prior to the game, pre-game pollsters had picked Asheboro to defeat Albemarle by around a four-touchdown margin, but the Fighting Bulldogs held their own and Asheboro copped only a 13-7 margin.

The first quarter was scoreless, but Albemarle fumbled in the second quarter and Asheboro recovered on the Bulldog's nine yard line, scoring a touchdown in three plays. The point-after was good and the Blue Comets led 7-0.

Joe Rabon picked up an Asheboro fumble and ran 25 yards across the Blue Comets goal line for a touchdown. The extra-point kick by Charles Daniel was successful and the scoreboard registered a 7-7 tie.

During the half-time activities Gwen Boyd, a senior, was chosen as the school's "Out-Standing Band Student of 1965."

She was selected by secret ballot of her fellow members in the ASHS band and was presented a trophy by the Albemarle Optimist Club. The presentation was made by Elworth Plyler, Optimist president, and Earl Hagans, chairman of the "Youth Appreciation Week" observance.

Albemarle received to open the second half and moved from its own 33-yard stripe to the 40-yard stripe before punting. After a penalization against Asheboro, and runs by Brigham, "Rip" Furr, Morrow and a punt by Overcash, the quarter ended.

Albemarle got ball possession on the Asheboro 43-yard line. Two first downs later, after Daniel had completed three passes, Asheboro got the ball on its 31-yard line. Moody, of the Blue Comets, passed the ball 11-yards to Wright for the tie-breaking points.

Albemarle got 12 first downs compared to eight by Asheboro; picked up 147 yards on the

Lucas Heads Basketball Squad

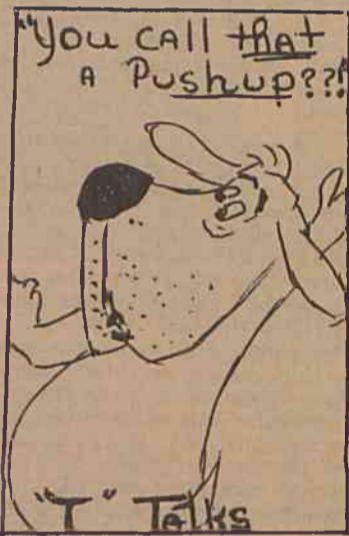

Linda Lucas, senior member of the basketball squad, has been chosen as captain of the 1965-66 Bulldogettes. Linda, who lettered last year, stands five feet nine and one-half inches tall and plays the guard position. Last year she was chosen to be on the 1965 All-Conference team as a guard.

The girls who will comprise this year's basketball team are as follows: seniors, Wendy Barry, guard; Nancy Walker, guard; Diane Hill, guard; juniors, Susan Snuggs, forward; Beth Eddins, forward; Linda Helms, forward; Susan Talbert, guard; sophomores, Cynthia Noah, rover; Fossie Webb, rover; Sandra Cranford, guard; and Anne Ayers, guard. Penny Furr and Jane Sanges will be the managers.

Practice has been progressing since the middle of October under the direction of Coach Claude Billy Tyson. Coach Tyson has been coaching at Senior high for three years. The season for the Bulldogettes will include six non-conference and a series of ten conference games.

Bulldogs, Greyhounds Deadlock 12-12 In SPC

The Fighting Bulldogs tied 12-12 with the Statesville Greyhounds in a South Piedmont Conference grid-iron game played at Statesville, October 5. Albemarle trailed 12 points midway the second quarter, but scored six points before the half and six points in the fourth quarter to deadlock the game.

Albemarle received to open the game and on the third play from scrimmage fumbled, with Statesville recovering. The next time the Bulldogs got the ball, they fumbled on the second play and Statesville recovered the ball, scoring the first touchdown. The extra point failed and the score was 6-0 in favor of Statesville.

The Greyhounds kicked off to Albemarle and the Bulldogs fumbled on the first play from scrimmage. Statesville recovered the ball and ten plays later, scored their second touchdown. The try for the point-after was no good and Statesville led 12-0.

Albemarle received and started a touchdown drive from its own 35-yard line. Charles Daniel completed a nine-yard pass to Whit Morrow and Woody Brigham ran one yard for a first down, the initial one of the evening for the Bulldogs.

Morrow got three yards and then Brigham ran for 17 yards and another first down.

After Morrow had run for three yards, Daniel completed a 35-yard pass to Morrow and the Bulldogs trailed by six.

Albemarle recovered a Statesville fumble with about one minute left before halftime.

The third quarter was scoreless.

On a fourth down play in the fourth quarter, the Bulldogs tied the score at 12-12 after Daniel had completed a 25-yard pass to Tucker; the extra point was no good.

Since a tie was eminent and a tie might figure in the final standings, as far as a championship is concerned an overtime was played. The Bulldogs outscored the Greyhounds 12-6 to run the final score to 24-18 in favor of Albemarle.

Bulldogs Bash Rebels 35-0

On scoring runs by Woody Brigham, Bobby Overcash, Charles Daniel, Whit Morrow, and "Rip" Furr, the visiting Bulldogs trounced Monroe 35-0 in a non-conference game played there, October 29.

Scoring 28 points in the first half, the Albemarle team scored 14 points per quarter. In the first quarter on the first play from scrimmage, Brigham ran for 56 yards. Daniel split the goal post with his extra point, and the scoreboard rested at 7-0 in favor of the blue and white. Before the period had ended, co-captain Bobby Overcash had scampered for six points on a 29-yard run. Daniel's point-after was good and the visitors led at 14-0. Before the echoes of the horn ending the first period had ceased, the Bulldogs had again racked up seven points. Daniel made the TD on a two yard crash, and the extra point. Twenty seconds before the end of the first half, Whit Morrow latched on to a 13-yard pass and scored. For the fourth straight time Charles Daniel kicked the extra point.

The final score came on a one-yard plunge, and Dahiel completed his five-for-five record when the point-after was good.

Many substitutes were used during the game. Brigham was the top ball carrier with over a 100 yards. Overcash threw a 60-yard pass to Leon Helms but was called back on a fifteen-yard penalty.
