College, Business, Service, Work Call Graduates To Begin Again

After three years of living and learning together, seniors are ready to go their different ways along the path of life. Many will enter college to further their education, others will venture into the business world, and some will enter the service or attend military academies.

Charlotte will welcome sixteen students next year. Attending the University of North Carolina at Charlotte will be Sherry Howard, Terry Lewis, Sonny Dick, Susan Wolf, Linda Butler, Dick Loeb, Harriet Emmons, Robert Brooks, and Gay Mount.

Jane Barbee, Ellen Lane, Sharon McCrady, Pam Thompson, and Diane Atkinson will travel to Kings College. Vons Smith and Carolyn Pemberton will further their studies at Charlotte Business College.

Lenoir-Rhyne will receive Tom Adams, Patricia Ray, Karen Hall, and Vic Moose.

Gardner-Webb will be the home of Lanny Mabry, Joe Speight, Bobby Madaris, Sammy Hopkins, and David Russell.

Twelve Go To ASU

Twelve students will attend Appalachian State University: Neesie Huneycutt, Joe Lowder, Susan Pierce, Debbie Hinson, Vickie Griffin, Starr Still, Janice Vanhoy, Candace Waller, Mary Ellen Goforth, Roger Dick, Terry McManus, and Harry Baltes.

Central Carolina will welcome Sherry Yow and Teresa Gaddy. Gail Fisher will further her education at East Carolina University.

Fourteen will travel to Central Piedmont: Susan Edwards, Linda Carpenter, Mike Redwine, Carolyn Simpson, Philip Drye, Steve Russell, Lou Shankle, Dale Preslar, Henry Snuggs, Characci Morgan, Myra Barbee, Buggs Courtney, Gary Townsend, Jerry Vanhoy.

Western Carolina will be home for John Medlin, Don Hatley, and Greg Hamilton. Judy Watts, Donna Treece, and Debbie Poplin will attend Catawba College.

Ten boys will journey to Raleigh to study at North Carolina State University: Doug Moose, Michael Morrow, Tony Rummage, Bill Hatley, Kenneth Kiser, Kent Russell, Ricky James, Tommy Cook, Steve Burleson, and Johnny Jones. Missy Hartsell and Mary Lou Weydell will attend Meredith College, also located in Raleigh.

Billy Freeman will settle down to work at Wake Forest University. Mary Kay Austin and Mary Kay Hannell will journey to Coker College. Carson-Newman College will receive Robert Lewis.

Mike Massey, Tony Martin, Bobby Doby, David Morris, Alice Parks, Kay Furr, Charles Crawley, Terry Davis, Deidra Clark, Johnny Lisk, Jimmy Whitley, and Debbie Gantt will further their education at Wingate College.

The University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill will welcome David Plyler, Dick Ross, Craig Pickler, Jimmy Nance, Dixie Calder, and Dennis Rickman. Sara Hall, Teresa Wagoner, Karen Moose, and Jill Anderson will attend the University of North Carolina at Greensboro. Mike Manning will study at Duke University.

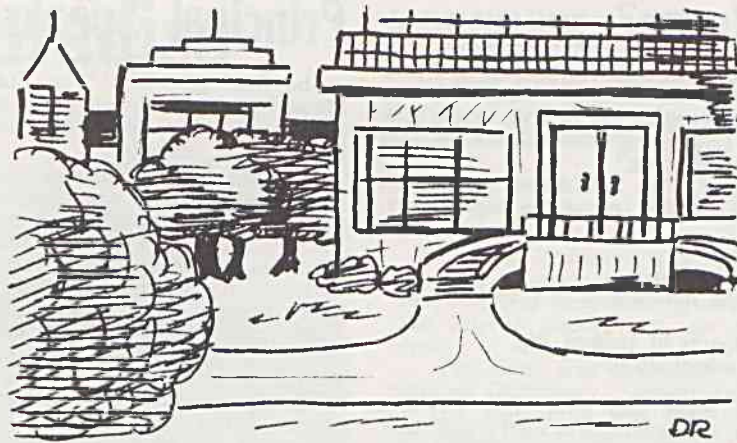

Paula Tucker will lay the foundations for her career at the North Carolina Baptist Hospital School of Nursing. Rowan Technical Institute will receive Martin Thompson, Danny Frick, and Loretta Smith. Tim Mauldin will study at Pembroke State University.

Norall Tindal will journey to Baptist College. Greensboro College will receive Glenda Young.

Pfeiffer College will be the home of Bill Watson, and Steve Brinson will study at Thomas Nelson Community College. The Atlanta School of Broadcasting will receive Jerel Burris and Rufus Lilly.

Carol Cook, Dinky Hathcock, and Jean Hatley plan to attend Evans Business College. Harriette Edwards and Deborah James will study at Kittrell College. Barber-Scotia College will welcome Claudia Monroe and Lee Thomas.

Willie Robinson will prepare for his future in barber school. Ann Motyka will study at Butler's School of Hairdressing.

Debbi Clark will travel to Patricia Steven's Fashion College.

Two students will enter military academies: Jim Faulkenberry, Greenbrier Military Academy; and Eric Mabry, Hargrave Military Academy.

Four intend to enter the service. Debbie Lander intends to join Women of the Air Force. Mike Noah will enter the United States Air Force, and Rodger Drye and Kenny Smith will serve in the United States Marine Corps.

Headed Straight For Work

The following students plan to begin work after high school graduation: Don Hardister, Gloria Hoyle, Pam Rogers, Karen Lisk, Jimmy Smith, Rita Blacklock, Ernest Watson, Brenda Lowder, Bobby Burleson, Myra Sessian, Vivian Bradshaw, Edith Morgan, Anita Pemberton, Gerald Boysworth, Steve Frick, Lanny Rabon, Susie Burris, Pam Lowder, Jackie Boone, Bobby Auten, Vicky Hinson, Ronnie Cagle, Barbara Eford, and Donna Hudson.

Those students undecided, as yet, concerning their future are Wayne Davis, Danny Rogers, Vannell Robinson, Carol Peck, Teresa Love, Beverly Goodman, Sylvia Blakely, Gloria Hancock, Joanne Newton, Allen Justus, Joann Moore, Gene Hearne, John Blackwell, Tiger Paschold, and Ric Taylor.

Park Scene Sends Seniors On Their Way

The close of the festivities of Senior Week came Saturday night, April 19, with the Senior banquet, "Sitting In the Park." After the meal, Mr. H. T. Webb gave the invocation, and David Plyler followed with a "Welcome to the Park." After Mr. Hawkins gave response to this, the traditional rituals began.

Denis Rickman, Class Historian, and Tiger Paschold, Giftorian, presented their creations concerning the class. Dick Ross followed with the Last Will and Testament.

Three Juniors, Cathy Barger, Susie Griffin, and Pat Courtney entertained upperclassmen with a jazz dance to "Sugar Shack."

Superlatives received recognition with Mary Kay Austin's rhyme. Mike Manning, Class Prophet, predicted the future of class members, and Dick Loeb presented the Class Poem.

The gymnasium was decorated for the event around the theme "Sitting in the Park." Spring was evident with gay colors and flowers. A swing was centered in the rear of the gym with benches, shrubs, and flowers surrounding it. Yellow table covers brightened the room. Each table was adorned with yellow flowers in a green vase.

Serving as chairmen of the committees for the banquet were Neesie Huneycutt and Eric Mabry, decorations; Sherry Howard, menu; Dixie Calder, invitations; Patricia Ray, favors; Denis Rickman and Michael Manning, properties; and Dick Ross and Sara Hall, programs.

Teachers Move To Other Posts
