Bulldogs Bullish On Senior High

Co-Captains Rummage and Wall took an 11-8 win over Watkins of Statesville. David Harrington led the 'Dogs to the can only kick it or touch it with the head or body, not with the 35 yard touchdown pass from Tony Morton and Doug Owens. The Bulldogs were blanked 7-0 and remain winless in conference play. The only score of the defensive struggle was on a Concord option.

Coach Ken Frazier's Thomasville's Bulldogs downed the Concord Spiderettes in a South Piedmont conference cage tilt, 100 yards long, Friday night, February 11, in the local gym. The Bulldogs received the first break of the game when the Little Wonders fumbled on their own 28 yard line and Doug Owens recovered.

The Bulldog offense was again silent, being unable to score for the second straight game. Concord took over in the third stanze to take a 25-20 lead. The Bulldogettes rallied in the final quarter to tie the game at 29 all and send it into overtime. The fifth play quarterback Jerry Home swept left end down for 48 yards and the touchdown. E.G. Smiff kicked the extra point.

Golfers Swing Into Action

The ASHS Golf Team will be made up of graduate students of the Golf-Technique class in Minicourses.

Mark Andrew, Thin Senter, Arnold Hesley, John Denning, Steve "Sugar Bear" Kluttz, and Claude Grigg have been following the comical antix of head grit Booby "Swinga" Yingling.

Bobby has been keeping up with his golf by reading Sports Illustrated and Ben Hogan's Nine Swings to Easy Money. For practical experience he has been reviewing all the big tournaments since 1907 and studying the winner's form, clubs to the green, scoring techniques, and shoe color.

"Color Scheme and matching poise," said the Swinga, play an important part on the green and in the after round refreshment areas. Also, anyone playing with or around Jimbo Hesley should watch out for the "super ball drives" that travel 50 yards in the air and 150 yards in the ground.
