Player Of The Week Honored

The three players of the week against South Rowan were Myron Harrington, Darryl Ellis and Curtis Paschold.

A senior, Myron made one touchdown and gained 105 yards on 14 carries.

At the position of offensive right guard, Curtis Paschold, a senior, also was one of the players of the week. At his offensive right guard position, Curtis handled South Rowan's star linebacker. Paschold related, "The strong points of the game were the offense along with the outstanding defensive efforts which held the Raiders scoreless until the last seconds of the game."

Darryl Ellis was the third player of the week from the offense. Darryl scored three touchdowns, catching one 74 yard pass, one 10 yard pass, and running five yards for another. A senior who plays the position of flanker, Ellis stated, "We had a lot of hustle and desire to win."

One of the three defensive players of the week against South Rowan was Jimmy Cain, a junior playing defensive end and making eight tackles.

Concerning the game Cain stated, "South Rowan had a lot of sore offensive backs after the game."

Jeff Redwine was a defensive player of the week also. Redwine, a senior, was in on nine tackles.

Redwine related, "We're going to win the rest of our games if the defense remains strong and the offense improves." According to Jeff the strong point of the defense is the defensive end.

Lew Smith, a senior linebacker made 16 tackles, helping the Bulldogs to a victory over South Rowan.

When asked if Lew planned to play college football, Lew stated, "Yes, I have a football scholarship to Stanly Tech."

Myron Harrington was the offensive player of the week against Thomasville. Myron scored one touchdown, gained 68 yards on 17 carries, and caught five passes.

When asked to comment on the game Harrington stated, "We stunk."

David Denning received player of the week honors following the Thomasville game.

David, a sophomore, plays one of the inside linebackers for the Bulldogs.

He gained nine tackles during his outstanding performance.

David is the second sophomore earning this honor. When asked how he felt about being chosen he admitted, "It makes me feel good and want to work hard the rest of the year."

Darryl Ellis received offensive player of the week against Concord.

Darryl scored the winning touchdown, an 85 yard kickoff return.

Mike Smith was one of the two defensive players of the week against Concord.

Mike, a junior, was in on nine tackles. According to Mike, the strong point of the defense is the whole defensive line.

When asked his opinion of the prospects of the team in the future Smith related, "Even though there are only two games left our team's going to continue playing with enthusiasm."

Lew Smith was the other defensive player of the week. He was in on 15 tackles.

J. V. Displays Bulldog Spirit

The Junior Varsity lost their season opener to Asheboro, 36-12, in a game that showed a lack of timing on the part of the team.

A similar performance was given in their second game where they lost 38-12 to Salisbury.

In the third game the 'Dogs gathered themselves up and pulled off a 12-0 upset over Kannapolis. That game showed how enthusiasm and a will to win will help a team's performance.

The Bulldogs let Thomasville slip by them in a 10-8 decision in their fourth game. This game should have been won by the JVs, but they didn't show the will to win, exhibited in the previous game.

In their fifth game, the 'Dogs returned to the type of football they played the first two games. They dropped a 34-12 decision to South Rowan.

In their sixth, and what was to be their final game, the Bulldogs came back with a 14-7 win over Concord. That made their season's record 2-4.

Some of the outstanding players were William Brown and Ricky Hamilton who gained substantial yardage in most of the games. Steve Harrington filled the quarterback position and performed well.

The defensive unit was led by linebackers Allan Morton and Steve Harris and a strong defensive line.
