Graduates to Hear Flood

by Shannon Homesley

Dr. Dudley E. Flood

Dr. Dudley E. Flood, Executive Director of the N.C. Association of School Administrators, will be the guest speaker at the 1994 graduation.

Dr. Flood received a Bachelor's degree from N.C. Central University, a Master's degree from East Carolina, and a Doctorate from Duke University. He has also studied at Hampton University, Elizabeth City State University, and UNC-Chapel Hill. He has taught and been principal for both elementary and secondary schools. He served as a Superintendent in the North Carolina Department of Public Instruction for 21 years. Dr. Flood has received more than 250 awards for civic service, including the "Order of the Longleaf Pine" award as Ambassador Extraordinary for North Carolina. He has also received the Outstanding Alumni Award from ECU and has been named Distinguished Professor by the National Academy of School Executives.

Albemarle High School welcomes and thanks Dr. Flood for his participation in the 1994 graduation.

Hannah Oettinger, Valedictorian

Amanda Pelt, Salutatorian

Oettinger, Pelt Named Valedictorian, Salutatorian

by Shannon Homesley

Valedictorian and salutatorian for the class of 1994 are Hannah Oettinger and Amanda Pelt, in that order.

Hannah Oettinger, valedictorian, is a four year member of the tennis team, drum major of the marching band, and student council treasurer. She attended Governor's School West-1993 in Natural Science. She has taken piano for almost ten years and recently received a high school diploma in piano.

Amanda Pelt, salutatorian, is president of the Science Club, an active member of First Presbyterian Church, and a Band Captain. She is a member of the National Honor Society. She also works fifteen hours per week at the Albemarle Animal Clinic.

Congratulations to Hannah and Amanda for their outstanding leadership and academic success at AHS.
