Tar Heel Alumnus to Speak at Graduation

by Shannon Homesley

The graduation speaker for 1995 is an AHS alumnus, Woody Durham. Mr. Durham, who is the radio announcer for Carolina basketball and football games is known as the "Voice of the

Woody Durham, "Voice of the Tarheels"

Tarheels."

Woody Durham grew up in Albemarle, North Carolina, where he started his broadcasting career at WZKY in August, 1957. He then attended the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill and graduated in 1963 with an AB degree in radio, television and motion pictures. Woody has worked in numerous television stations throughout North and South Carolina. In 1981, Durham was named Vice President and Executive Sports Director of Village Sports, Inc. in Chapel Hill, N.C. and is currently under the same position. He has been recognized by the National Sportscasters and Sportswriters Association as the North Carolina Sportscaster of the Year numerous times. Mr. Durham now resides in Chapel Hill with his wife, Jean, and his two sons, Wes and Taylor. AHS sincerely welcomes the "Voice of the Tar Heels" to the 1995 graduation ceremonies.

Ingram, Lisk, Valedictorian, Salutatorian for 1995

by Shannon Homesley

The 1995 valedictorian and salutatorian are Marcus Roosevelt Ingram and William Garrison Lisk, respectively.

Marcus has worked hard all year to maintain his grades and keep up his high expectations. As president of the student body and drum major of the band, Marcus has made himself widely known as a great guy with a good sense of humor. Marcus plans to continue his education at Wake Forest University in Winston Salem where he wishes to pursue a career in medicine.

Will has also worked hard, taking both available AP courses and struggling through Spanish III. This year he was editor-in-chief of Crossroads and a successful member of the golf team. Although Will is most famously known as always chasing the cuties, he is a good guy who always has a smile on his face and a girl on his arm.

Congratulations goes out to these two students for the constant hard work and their academic excellence!

Marcus Ingram, Valedictorian

Will Lisk, Salutatorian
