

CLASS NEWS

THE ELEVENTH GRADE

Mr. F. C. Hentz, our home room teacher, was absent two days on account of the death of his grandmother. He was missed by all the high school. Everyone was glad when he returned to his classes.

Manila Reese has been absent from school for several days on account of sickness. We all hope she is back in school before long. Manila is missed by the whole class.

The Senior Class had charge of the chapel program on Friday, November 18. The following program was given: first, a black face dialog by Eugene Potts and Malcolm Zoellner; second, a play "The Country Cousin" by Marveta Reese, Doris Potts, Peggy Thompson, and Edith Crunkleton; third, a black face dialog by Barak Wright and Archie Picklesiner; and fourth, a poem by Margaret Rogers. Afterwards the entire school enjoyed a short motion picture.

TENTH GRADE

The Tenth Grade girls thought it was very sweet of Mr. Summer to give them such a sour lemon after experiments in chemistry.

The latest style among the Tenth Grade girls seems to be silk stockings (knee length) and short dresses.

We celebrated National Education Week as follows: Monday afternoon at two-thirty, the high school gave a program; Wednesday at two-thirty, the grammar grades gave a program, after which tea was served by the P. T. A. to the parents attending the exercises.

Friday morning, the entire school marched through town. Friday afternoon the Primary grades gave a program, which was followed by an educational reel. Many parents visited the school during the week.

The Tenth Grade think that Miss Whiteside is trying to make up for our Thanksgiving holidays by giving us extra-long assignments this week.

THE NINTH GRADE

James Hunt became so excited about going to the Anderson Fair that he forgot that he could call Eugene up from his own home and walked all the way to Mr. Paul's just to tell Eugene he was going.

The Ninth Grade has lost a member, Bob Osborne, who moved away. He was a good student and we all miss him.

The reporter looks on while;
The Humor Editor forgets where he is and draws numerous designs on the stove.

EIGHTH GRADE

The Eighth Grade held an election for class officers, November 14, 1938. The following officers were elected:
President - - - - Barak Wright
Vice-President - - Marie Neely
Secretary - - - - Malcolm Zoellner
Treasurer - - - - Eugene Potts
As temporary chairman Albert Rogers presided during the election of officers. We had an English lesson on correct procedure and carried on our election in a business like manner.