

LOCAL NEWS

Anderson's new 5 and 10¢ store opened December 10. This store carries a complete line of toys, perfume, cosmetics, and other things of this kind. Candy was given to every child who visited the store on opening day. Santa Claus in person was there on Saturday, December 17, so that all the children could tell him what they wanted for Christmas. Highlands is proud of its new store and hopes that it will be a success.

The Dramatic Club met December 8, with about twenty members present. The Christmas pageant was practiced and plans for having a Christmas tree in the center of town were discussed.

A group of Boy Scouts has been organized with Mr. DuPree as scoutmaster; Louis Edwards, assistant scoutmaster; Edward Potts, chief patrol leader; Vernon Aiken and Elmer McDowell, patrol leaders. Mr. W. H. Cobb has given the use of the cabin on the old Richardson place for the next year.

The Boy Scouts were the guests of the Lions Club at a dinner at the Hotel Edwards, Monday evening, December 12. Several members of both clubs were present. A delicious dinner was served.

The following students have arrived home to spend the holidays with their parents: Miss Carolyn Potts, from the Women's College of the University of N. C., Greensboro; Miss Sarah Thompson, from Queens-Chicora College, Charlotte; and Guy Warren Paul, from Brevard College.

Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Hentz will visit their homes in Pomaria and Mullins, S.C., during the holidays.

Miss Elizabeth Whiteside will leave December 23, to spend the holidays at her home in Uree, N. C.

Miss Eva Potts arrived home December 14, to spend several days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Potts.

Mr. Harry Wright, a graduate of Highlands High School, who is now employed by the Forest Service, will be married December 17, to Miss Sara Nell Moore of Lake City, Fla.

The Episcopal Church School of Highlands will have its annual Christmas tree December 23, at four o'clock, at the church. Many donations have already been received by the chairman of the tree committee, Miss Estelle Edwards.

Miss Estelle Edwards has returned from a visit to the campus of the University of Georgia, where she attended school last year.

-----o-----

FATHER IS GONE

Father is gone
We miss him so.
Unless you have experienced this
You do not know.

He taught us the right thing
He gave us good advice.
And if we do not live his teachings
We will have to pay the price.

On the eighteenth of November,
God called him away
And left six orphans
to make their own way.

-Edwin Penland

-----o-----