

THE THIRD GRADE

We want to thank Martha Cobb for all the new books she loaned us. They were the "Bobsy Twins."

-Mary Gibson

Anne Reagan is reading, "Winnie the Pooh" to the whole room. We surely have enjoyed it.

-James Potts

We had an egg hunt on Monday, April 10. Jim Henry won the big prize, a basket full of bunnies. Mary Gibson and George Roberts tied for second place.

-Louise Moss

Edna Norton, Anne Reagan, Herbert Johnson, and Irene Lowe made the highest on the standard tests.

-Martha Talley

We gave our teacher a surprise party. Cookies and lemonade were served. We thank Mrs. Tudor Hall for helping us.

-Herbert Johnson

-----o-----

THE FOURTH GRADE

SANDPIPER

We studied the poem, "Sandpiper" in our English. The sandpiper is a beach bird with partly webbed toes. He is not very beautiful. He is a brown speckled bird with long legs and a long, sharp bill. He helps people by eating insects and small animals. Beach dwellers watch him with delight as he flits along the shore just above the water line.

-William Henry

SURPRISES

We are reading in our new book, "Surprises". We like it because it is about nature. It tells about fibers, foods, fire, animals called mammals, rocks, sun, moon, and stars. We will be sorry when we finish it, for we like the riddles and puzzles very much.

-Marveta Houston

We have made many more riddles in our Geography Workbook.

1. I am a big tree with small thick leaves. My fruit is made into oil. I can live in a hot country. What am I?

2. I am a city near the mouth of the Rhone River. I am called the "City of Oils." What am I?

3. I am a river with many branches. I flow west through a Jungland into the Atlantic Ocean. What am I?

-Louise Stewart

EASTER EGG HUNT

The Fourth Grade went to Sunset Rocks Monday morning about eleven o'clock. After we hunted the eggs, we had a picnic lunch. Lena Crane and Floyd Zachary won the prize for finding the most eggs. We had a nice walk and enjoyed our lunch.

-Hazel Beale

-----o-----

THE FIFTH GRADE

BIRDS

We have had a very good time drawing birds. We have made a chart and the one who drew the best bird put it on the chart. Martha Richardson put hers up first; it was a flicker. Mary Lou Hedden drew a red headed woodpecker. Maxine Evitt who was third had a blue bird; Frances Hedden, a cardinal; Bobby Rice a nuthatch; and Audrey Aiken a robin. We wrote a story about each bird to put under the picture on the chart.

-Jean Keener

THE O. B. CLUB

The O. B. Club has appointed a new president, Maggie Talley; vice-president, Frances Crunkleton; secretary, Dora Hedden.

-Edwin Norton

BOOKS

The Fifth Grade is having a contest to see who can read and report on the most books. So far Barbara Zoellner and