

THREE STARS TOP OUTSTANDING CAST OF "THE WOMEN"

Norma Shearer, Joan Crawford, Rosalind Russell together for the first time.

Heralded as one of the most unusual films ever to come out of Hollywood, "The Women", with an all-star cast of 135 actresses headed by Norma Shearer, Joan Crawford and Rosalind Russell, opens at Highlands School Theatre on Monday for an engagement of two days.

The story, based upon Clare Boothe's Broadway stage success of the same name, weaves the everyday experiences of women into an exciting comedy-drama into which laughs and tears are skillfully blended. Ultra-modern settings, smart clothes and a fashion parade add eye-filling beauty as a background to the razor-sharp dialogue.

Miss Shearer appears as Mary Haines, her first modern society role since "Riptide." Joan Crawford is seen as the siren Crystal Allen, and Rosalind Russell as the inveterate gossip, Sylvia Fowler.

Others in a powerful supporting cast include Mary Boland, Paulette Goddard, Phyllis Povah, Joan Fontaine, Virginia Weidler, Lucile Watson, Florence Nash, Muriel Hutchinson, Esther Dale, Ann Morris, Ruth Hussey, Dennie Moore, Mary

FOUR "DAUGHTERS COURAGEOUS" COME TO HIGHLANDS SCHOOL THEATRE TODAY

"Daughters Courageous", the Warner Brothers comedy of domestic life which opens today at Highlands School Theatre could be termed a first cousin to the same studio's highly successful "Four Daughters", but it is not a sequel to that picture.

The similarity starts with the cast, for every important player in the former picture is also in the new one; then it had the same director, and besides it was written by a writing team one of whose members was also co-author of the screen play which was last year's hit.

While the plot concerns different people than those in "Four Daughters", there is a basic similarity in that the new picture is also about the joys, the sorrows, the laughs, the tears in the lives of a genuinely "folksy" family.

The past week-end guests of Miss Rose B. Johnson at Johnson Cote were her two sisters and brothers-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Millen, Rock Hill, S.C., and Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Whelchel of College Park, Ga. Miss Johnson's present guest, Lucius Fitts of Atlanta is a nephew.
