

COMMUNITY NEWS

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Rucker announce the arrival of a son, Thomas Ralph, On Wednesday, September 13, at their home in Highlands.

Mr. Guy Paul, Jr. is seriously ill at his home on the Walhalla road.

Miss Doris Potts and Miss Bethel Crisp spent the last week visiting Mr. and Mrs. H.G. Crisp at Gay, N.C..

Robert and David Beale left Highlands last week to enter school in Port Orange, Florida.

Miss Estelle Edwards left September 19, for Women's College of the University at Greensboro. She stopped in Charlotte for a short visit with Misses Sarah and Peggy Thompson.

The P.T.A. food sale held at the Hudson Library, Saturday, September 16, netted a sum of $8.15.

Miss Carolyn Potts left Friday, September 15, for Greensboro, where she will re-enter Women's College of the University of N.C. for the year.

Mr. and Mrs. L.G. Apply and family are spending the winter in Chicago, where two of the children, Peggy and Mary, will attend school.

Misses Sarah and Peggy Thompson left September 12, for Queens-Chicora College in Charlotte.

Those enjoying a picnic at Cliffside Recreation Park Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. G.D. Edwards and family, Miss Bernice Durgin, Mrs. Arnold Garris and daughter, Jeannette, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Jackson, Mrs. Hines, Misses Bess and Nancy Hines, Miss Tony McCully, and Miss Jane Thompson.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Nollman and daughters Betty Jane and Catherine, and Miss Marie Hamrick enjoyed a trip to Asheville last week. From there Miss Betty Jane Nollman returned to Southern College at Lakeland, Florida, and Miss Hamrick to her home in Jacksonville, Fla.

Misses Marjorie Neely and Lucy Dryman, and Messrs. Newton Crunkleton, Harold McConnell, and Elmer McDowell enjoyed a trip through the Smokies Sunday.

-----o-----

SOCIETY NEWS

The first meeting of the O.F. Summer Literary Society was held September 15, and the following officers were elected: Margie Waller, President; Lucy Dryman, Vice-president; Alma Penland, Secretary; Louise Burnette, Order Critic; Mozelle Bryson, Program Critic; Marie Neely, Pianist; Gladys Burnette, Chaplain; Bidd Burton and Herbert Paul, Pages.

After the election of officers Mr. Hentz made a short speech on the behavior of Society members. After the officers were sworn in by Mr. Hentz, the meeting adjourned. The first program for the year will be presented September 29.

-----o-----

THE DENTIST

A very welcome guest in our school this week was Dr. Masten, sent here by the State Board of Health for the purpose of examining and caring for the teeth of children in the Primary Grades. He made a very interesting and helpful talk to us on the care of the teeth and the importance of the care of the teeth, especially while we are young. He also mentioned some of the harmful results of bad teeth.