

on Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday afternoons. The morning hours are from ten to twelve o'clock, and the afternoon hours from four to six o'clock. Volunteer helpers will assist the regular librarians.

Composing a quartet were Rev. J. S. Higgins, Mrs. A. B. Potts, Guy Paul, Jr., and Mr. Benfield.

Guy Paul, Jr., leader of the service, extends a cordial invitation to all persons interested in community singing: to meet with them on Wednesday evenings at 8 o'clock.

HOTELS RECEIVING INQUIRIES FOR WEEK-END OF AUGUST 4

Interest continues to increase in the Bobby Jones golf exhibition for the benefit of the Hudson Library Association, which will be given at the Country Club on Sunday afternoon, August 4th.

Inquiries are now coming in to the hotels, and inasmuch as this exhibition is to be held at the height of the season, facilities for the many additional guests may be a problem. Therefore, the more far-seeing are wise in making their reservations ahead.

Bobby Jones has recently played for the benefit of the Red Cross in New York City, Boston, and Columbus, Ohio, and it is assumed that he will draw a large crowd in his own section of the country.

EDUCATION CLASS GIVES
LUNCHEON

The adult education class held its July meeting at the Jim Hicks center on Wednesday, with Mrs. Cowan, district supervisor, Mrs. Duncan, county supervisor, Mr. and Mrs. A.C. Reynolds, Anne and Frank Cowan as guests.

Mr. Reynolds, principal of Oak Grove high school, and former president of Cul-lowhee college, as well as former Buncombe county school superintendent, was the main speaker of the day. Talks were also made by Mrs. Cowan and Mrs. Duncan.

Following the talks the class served a delicious luncheon.

COMMUNITY SONG SERVICE AT
BAPTIST CHURCH

At the request of a number of summer people an old-fashioned community song service was held at the Baptist church last Wednesday evening in connection with the mid-week prayer service.

In addition to the congregational singing, solos were given by Miss Betty Jane Nollman of Sebring, Fla.; Rev. J.S. McIver of Greenville, S.C., one of a party of fifteen botanists from Furman University working at the biological laboratory; W.S.
Davis, Rev. J.G. Benfield, and Guy Paul, Jr.

James C. Mell had as his guests for a picnic lunch on Sunset Rocks last Sunday Mrs. John D. Mell, Mr. and Mrs. P. H. Mell and small daughter, Patricia, of Athens, Ga. Other Athens people up for the day were Ralph Hodgson and his daughter, Miss Marguerite Hodgson, who with Mrs. Hodgson are planning to return later in the summer for a stay of several weeks.
