

MISS TROSDAL IS BRIDE OF
PAUL ULANOWSKY

The marriage of Miss Lucy Storm Trosdal of Highlands and Savannah to Paul Alexander Ulanowsky of New York City was solemnized at Solbakken, the summer home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Einar Storm Trosdal, at high noon Saturday, August 3. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. George L. Taylor of Tryon, in the presence of only members of the family and a few friends.

Masses of rhododendron, with garlands of mountain laurel, were banked at one end of the long living room to form a setting for the ceremony.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her uncle D. Hudson Boyd, of Savannah, wore a wedding gown of stiff ivory moire brocade. Her cap was of rose point lace, caught at the neck with orange blossoms, from which fell a finger tip veil of ivory tulle and a short face veil. She carried a small old-fashioned bouquet of sweet peas and roses.

Miss Antonio Altstaetter, the bride's only attendant wore a gown of powder blue moire, with a short jacket tied in a bow in front. Her large picture hat was of matching powder blue, and her bouquet was of summer flowers of varying pastel shades.

Einar Storm Trosdal, Jr., brother of the bride, acted as Mr. Ulanowsky's best man.

The wedding music was played by the bride's cousin, Miss Laura Shallenberger, of Atlanta, who wore a gown of white mouseline de soie. Her corsage was of pastel summer flowers.

The dining room was decorated with yellow and white flowers in tall copper vases. The bride's table on which stood the wedding cake, was covered with a cloth of embroidered linen. While the wedding breakfast was being served, a band of mountain musicians gave several selections of lovely mountain music from the piazza.

Mr. and Mrs. Ulanowsky will make their home in New York City.

HUDSON LIBRARY HOLDS ANNUAL MEETING

The annual meeting of the Hudson Library was held at the annex on Thursday, Aug. 1, with the president, Miss Marguerite Ravenel presiding. Fifteen members were present, and after the various reports were given, the president suggested that resolutions of regret at the passing of Mrs. John Jay Smith be incorporated in the minutes, and that sympathy be extended to Mr. Smith. Mrs. Smith had been a tireless worker for the library for almost half a century, tiding it over many lean years.

The annual election resulted in all officers being re-elected. They are: president, Miss Marguerite Ravenel; first vice-president, Miss Albertina Staub; sec-

HAVE YOU VISITED
ORIENTAL ARTS.....MOUNTAIN CRAFTS
GIFT SHOP
IN THE HOME OF
MRS. J. E. ROOT
UNIQUE AND WELL SELECTED THINGS
YOU WILL FIND A WARM WELCOME

ond vice-president, Miss Mary J. Crosby; secretary, Miss Cora Miltimore; treasurer, Miss Dorothea Harbison.

The board of trustees was re-elected with the exception of Miss Minnie D. Warren who asked to be relieved of her duties as trustee. Her resignation was reluctantly accepted, and she was given a rising vote of thanks for her interest and support which have meant so much to the institution through the years. Mrs. Ralph Sargent, of St. Paul, Minn., and a summer home owner, was elected to succeed Miss Warren. Her parents, Dr. Alexander P. Anderson and the late Mrs. Lydia Anderson, were among the pioneer summer home owners of Highlands and figured prominently in its early history. Composing the board of trustees are Mrs. F. H. Potts; Mrs. J. A. Hines, Mrs. Arthur L. Bliss and Mrs. Ralph Sargent.

Miss Gertrude Harbison was re-elected librarian and Miss Dorothea Harbison assistant.

Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Anderson had as their guests the first of the week Mr. and Mrs. E. N. Durkee of Hollywood, Fla., who were en route to Massachusetts

KINGS
INN

CALL FOR BEAKER BREAD
VIRGINIA DARE CAKES
FRESH DAILY