P.-T. A. TO SPONSOR BENEFIT CONCERT NEXT WEDNESDAY

Charlotte Klinger, Austrian refugee now at Brevard, will be the central figure in a concert at Wolf Ridge, the summer home of the Misses Marguerite and Clare Ravenel, on Wednesday afternoon, August 21st, at 3:30 o'clock.

Mrs. Klinger is the grand-niece of Johann Strauss, noted European pianist. She has performed on concert stage in Vienna as well as other European capitals. Coming to New York City as a refugee, she was well received and soon became a faculty member of the New York School of Music. Her desire to be with her husband who is also a musician caused her to come

HIGHLANDS LITTLE THEATRE TO PRESENT PLAY IN CLAYTON, GEORGIA

Arthur Little, director of Highlands Little Theatre, is at present in Washington, D.C., but will return the latter part of the week to take "The Late Christopher Bean" to Clayton at the request of Mrs. M. S. Edsan, president of the Clayton Woman's Club. The Woman's Club is sponsoring an evening performance of this play at the high school auditorium at 8 o'clock on Tuesday, August 20th, and the proceeds will go toward equipping the lunch room of the Clayton school.

Tickets will be on sale in Clayton and Lakemont by request of Mrs. Edsan, and at the door the night of the play.

The Board of the Highlands Little Theatre is making plans for a more ambitious summer program next year. They hope to give a number of plays in Highlands during the summer and to take them on tour to Clayton and other nearby resort towns.

Edward Potts is at Angel's hospital convalescing from an appendix operation of last week.
