HELEN'S BARN BOOKS RETURN ENGAGEMENT SOCO GAP DANCERS

In view of the large and enthusiastic crowd of dancers and onlookers who welcomed the Soco Gap square dance team at Helen's Barn on July 23rd, and their very evident enjoyment of the exhibition given by these dancers, the management has booked a return engagement for sometime around the middle of August. The date of this return engagement will be announced next week.

EXHIBIT OF HANDCRAFT AND FOLK ARTS TO CONTINUE THROUGH SUNDAY

The exhibit of folk arts and handcrafts that opened at the museum on Tuesday will continue through Sunday afternoon.

The exhibition of yarns, with the various homemade dyes and their sources, from the Arts and Crafts Shop of Mrs. Lewis Norton at Cashiers, is one of the many interesting exhibits to be seen at the museum this week.

An exhibit from Brasstown, including the very first piece of carving, the beginning of the John C. Campbell Folk School, will be on display. Exquisitely lovely hooked Oriental Chinese and Persian rugs by Mrs. O. E. Young, owner of Wit's End Gift Shop, have been loaned for this exhibition.

Miss Bragg, museum director, said all gift shop exhibits would be removed after Sunday, and the exhibit for the following week would be "those things people have remembered to bring in after seeing this week's exhibit."

Mrs. Ralph Sargent, Miss Rebecca Nall, Miss Rebecca Bridgers and Mrs. Clark Howell are the committee in charge of individual collections.

Mrs. Florence Perry of Charleston, S.C., arrived Saturday to spend a few days with her daughter, Mrs. George Saussy, at Highfield, Mrs. Perry's summer home on the Walhalla Road.

Miss Bess Hines has returned from a week-end visit with her sister, Mrs. Newman Ormond, at Nantahala Station.
