WOMAN'S AUXILIARY EPISCOPAL CHURCH
TO HOLD FOOD SALE SATURDAY

The Woman's Auxiliary of the Episcopal church will hold a food sale next Saturday from ten o'clock in the morning until six o'clock in the afternoon in Mrs. Louis Edwards' fruit stand, formerly Wiley's fruit stand, on Main Street. There will be homemade cakes, pies, cookies, jams, jellies, etc.

Anyone wishing to contribute to the food sale or help with it in any way, will please see Mrs. Jack M. Hall, chairman.

HUDSON LIBRARY VALUABLE
ASSET TO TOWN

Highlands people are fortunate in having at their command such highclass reading matter as that found in the Hudson Library with its more than 5,000 volumes of fiction, biography, travel, nature books, history, drama, and poetry.

With a view to further augmenting this valuable asset of the town, the Library
