Dearest Anne,

I know it is getting pretty late^(11/25) but I feel so wonderful (thanks to you) that I want to sign something sweet and good for you.

First of all I want to say is that all of the people in your classroom that I dislike, well, I can say I like Sean & Larry. They seemed to be a lot like us. They are a lot of fun and I hope we can have more fun together.

Well, I want to say again that you are wonderful in every way, you are the nicest, prettiest, and most ~~understandable~~ understandable person that I have ever met. After tonight (April 29, 1961) I certainly do realize how much you love me and god, honey, you know how much I love you. Honey,
