

CLASS OF 1976 PROPHECY

The year is 1986 and it is time for the Class of 1976 to have its reunion. The reunion is being held at Wildcat Cliffs Country Club.

The first to arrive is Air Force Major Allan James and wife Debbie. Life has treated him well and he now drives a 1986 bright orange Camaro.

Next to arrive is George Schmitt and wife Margie. George is now owner of the world famous beer franchise, "Schmittz."

Phyllis Chastain, the owner of the Blue Ridge Pharmacy, is now arriving in her fire engine red Mustang. As the doorman takes her coat a pleasing "Thank You" is heard through the ballroom.

Kenneth Manley and wife Dana are entering through the side door. Kenneth is currently touring the states lecturing on "Prison Reform."

Tony Jones is next to enter. He is basketball coach for the Division Winning Lenior-Rhyne Bears.

Patrolman Jimmy Keener is now walking in. Jimmy's stay will be short because he has to be back on the job before long.

Walking in together is oil-laden : Craig McCall and Teddy Rhodes. Craig is the mechanic on Teddy's Pro Stocker Oldsmobile. It burns a new gas designed by Craig: Petroneum.

Most of tonight's couples were chauffeured in by the world famous bus driver, David Keener. His new bus line, Speedway, is the fastest in the U.S.

Behind Keener is Keith Holt and wife Kimberly. He is the "Godfather" of Highlands. He is accompanied by two bodyguards, because he is among the ten richest men in the world.

Arriving at the front door is the former Trudy Rogers and husband Tim. They currently own Alexander's Home for Handicapped Children in which their own six are enrolled.

In come Forest Ranger Lori Nylund and pet Raccy. She recently came back from Colorado where she is employed.

Now arriving is Roger Lee Wilson the world famous motor cycle stunt rider. He wheeled his motorcycle all the way from Clear Creek to the reunion here at Wildcat Cliffs.

Marvin Chastain, entering now, is owner of Highlands' first ABC store. He caters his business to all parties held at the R. Q. Drive-In.

Service Station owner Tom James is now coming through the door. He owns the newest station in town, the Texon.

Now entering is the world famous authority on dieting, Mary Lee Keener and husband Larry.

Next to arrive is Terri and husband, Robert. She is the owner of Dendy's Cosmetology Studio's which is the largest chain in America.