Dillard Alumni To Celebrate Tenth Anniversary

Chartered in 1956 by the State of North Carolina as a non-profit organization, the Dillard Alumni, Incorporated will celebrate its 10th year with activities planned to be bigger and better than previous years.

Formal announcements have gone out to approximately 1000 alumni in all parts of the United States inviting them home for the weekend of May 27-30.

Outstanding events of the weekend will be the crowning of Miss Alumni 1966, presentation of Scholarships and awards to seniors, and the first meeting of the organization with a delegated assembly when chapters have a delegate for every five members.

Scholarships this year have been awarded Lola Ann Jones, Curtis Phillips, and Esther Silver. Other seniors will receive recognitions for outstanding achievements.

Committee Announces Retirements

Two teachers of the Goldsboro system are scheduled to retire at the close of this school term according to a report from the Committee on Retirements.

The teachers are Miss Hilda Thompson, of the Greenleaf School faculty and Mrs. Mary L. Williams of the East End School faculty.

Both teachers through the years have watched hopefully the growth of young boys and girls as they passed from the primary and elementary schools and on into high school, and many into college.

Principals, teachers, students and the Dillard Alumni Association wish for them the happiness of many more years.

Student Council Sponsors Teacher-Appreciation Day

Under the sponsorship of the Student Council, Dillard students paid honor to their teachers on April 6. The occasion was the Fourth Annual Teacher-Appreciation Day scheduled to show the high esteem that students hold for their teachers.

At a special arranged program tributes were given by representatives of the following departments: Language Arts, Social Studies, Mathematics, Special Education, Music, Vocational Education, Science, Health and Physical Education and the administrative staff.

To further demonstrate their appreciation as expressed in their theme, "Keys We Appreciate," S. C. president, Vincent Weeks, presented each teacher a large key painted in the school's colors, blue and gold, as a symbol of love and appreciation.

These students were members of the planning committee: Ronald Dortch, Chairman, John Hicks, Linda Silver, Dorothy Horne, Linda Gerald, La Forest Ford, Nettie Sherard, Linda White, Queen Esther Wiggs, and Sandra Durante.
