

9A Class News

The school year has been exciting and adventurous for the 9A class. As newcomers to Carver High, we embarked upon our first year as high school students who were determined to be an active, energetic class.

Under the leadership of Wilma Hargrove, our class president, the class has made some steps forward and lists among its accomplishments, the donation of $25.00 to our school cafeteria. The class has presented two public programs, namely, "A Womanless Wedding" and "A Variety Show", featuring 9A class members. The proceeds were used for current school drives. Three members of our class, Delores Hayes, Kay Harriston, and Marilyn Herring, won 1st, 2nd and 3rd prizes in the Declamation Contest between the two ninth grade divisions recently.

The 9A class has great hopes for future years and our motto is "Let's have the best class".

9B Class Summary

The 9B class, under the guidance of our teacher, Mr. N. A. Cheek, has presented three chapel programs. They were as follows: On Nov. 11, 1949, the 9A and 9B classes presented "Cavalcade of America." On February 10, 1950, the 9B class presented a round table discussion centered on the Abolition of Slavery; on April 22, 1950 we presented an oratorical contest. Prizes were given to the best three contestants. The awards were to: Delores Hayes, first prize; Kay Harriston, second prize; and Marilyn Herring, third prize.

During the Red Cross Drive the members of 9B participated fully and willingly. Our cooperation was commendable in the popularity contest, ticket selling for plays, and other programs.

Since the beginning of school, one of the relatives of Wade Durham passed. We, the members of 9B, showed our sympathy by a card of condolence.

In the school years to come, we hope to improve our reputation and become better students of tomorrow.

We also wish to thank our teachers for their untiring efforts and cooperation. It has been an enjoyable year for all of us.

A Section of Tenth Grade Closes Year

The A Section of the tenth grade was officially organized in October 1949, under the supervision of Mr. W. I. Goins, our new homeroom advisor.

Officers elected for the year were: Wade Kornegay, president; Charlotte Wynn, vice president; Marion Wooten, secretary, and Alfonza King, treasurer.

Major objectives for the year were: Self Realization, Human Relationships, and Civic Responsibility.

As a result of cooperative action we have accomplished the following during the year. On October 28, a program observing United Nations Day was presented. On November 10, Negro History Week was commemorated with a portrayal of the accomplishments of Negroes in Music. On March 21 the Easter season was observed with a program depicting the resurrection in a series of poems. The vice president of our class, Charlotte Wynn, was crowned "Miss Carver" as a result of our class reporting the largest amount of money in the popularity contest sponsored by the Student Council. Our class has been represented in all of the activities of the school during the year and we look forward to filling some of the top posts in the program of events for the coming year.

Happenings In The 11th B Class

The members of the eleventh B class selected their officers and made plans for the year at their first meeting during the second week of the school year. The officers chosen were: Hattie Hardy, president; Paul Taylor, vice president; Janet Kelly, secretary; and Elizabeth Smith, treasurer. With a new sponsor, Mr. E. W. H. Kyer, our class pledged to make this year a successful one.

Members of the class have been outstanding in many of the activities of the school. On the honor roll during the entire year have been Annie Carraway, Joseph Kornegay, Joyce Kornegay, Willie G. Royal, Donald Carr and Hattie M. Hardy. Hattie Hardy and Joseph Kornegay were installed in the Crown and Scepter Club during a very impressive ceremony earlier in the year. Hattie Hardy has been a leading actress in the productions, "Which Way to Boston" and "Revenge", presented by the Dramatics club. On the basketball teams were Joseph Kornegay, Mary S. Bennett, George Washington, Cornell Boney and Carrie Walters, while Maxine and Joyce Kornegay boosted their play on the cheering squad.

The class made a trip to Goldsboro on April 15 to participate in Career Day. They are now planning for the exciting event of the year, the Junior-Senior Prom. We look forward to our summer vacation and our senior year with great enthusiasm and interest, and with a program which we hope will challenge those who follow us.

Glee Club News

As the school year approaches its end, the Glee Club can look back over a successful year. Our first appearance was at the P. T. A. meeting during American Education Week. Other engagements included the Christmas Musicales, music for the Crown and Scepter Club's installation of new members, the program at Payne's Temple sponsored by the Civic League of Mount Olive, at Northeast Chapel for Junior Usher's Program, the annual Spring Musicales, and music for baccalaureate service and commencement exercises.

On April 14, the Glee Club went to Tarboro, N. C., where the State Music District Contest was being held. Delaney Kornegay, our baritone soloist, won a rating of 1 (Excellent) over contestants from Greenville and Wilson. Delores Dawson, soprano soloist, and the mixed chorus also received commendable ratings.

At the end of this year we will lose some of our most loyal members and best voices. Those graduating are Alfonza Edwards, James Hobbs, Joe Parker, Delores Dawson, Martha Miller, Doris Thomas, and Ernestine Thomas. We sincerely wish them much success and the best of luck.

Officers for the year were: Alfonza King, president, Lavonde Grady, vice-president, Joyce Ann Kornegay, secretary, Joseph Kornegay, treasurer, John Elliott, sergeant-at-arms, and C. M. Crudup, director.

LARGEST CLASS

The Class of 1950 is the largest ever graduated from Carver.
