

1964 Last Will and Testament

Article I

We, the Senior Class of 1964, leave to the whole school the privilege of standing for the Seniors, the words to the school song (which no one ever seems to learn), and "that Grand Ole Ragsdale Tradition".

Article II

To the Juniors, we leave our many privileges, our forced dignity, our old term papers, the thrill of graduation, and MOST of all the Washington-New York trip that the Class of '63 left — cause we REALLY went!

Article III

To the Sophomores, we leave the joys of being an upperclassman, and the waiting and waiting and waiting for those shiny blue and gold rings.

Article IV

To the Freshmen, we leave the tears, the pain, and the agony of three years of waiting to be a senior and the privilege of torturing next year's freshmen.

Article V

To individual persons we leave the following:

Section 1

Jimmy Bilbro leaves his seat in Advanced Algebra to Johnny Stevenson in hopes that he will be sitting in it after the first six weeks next year.

Section 2

Mike Tippett leaves a penny to the faculty who are always stealing them out of his locker.

Section 3

Eddie Blair leaves Frank Van-story a good case of sunburn.

Section 4

Steves Simmons leaves Mr. Bourne to any student who goes to the Guilford Industrial Education Center next year and good luck to you.

Section 5

Joe Venable leaves his curly blond hair to Jerry Readinger.

Section 6

Sally Blaner leaves first chair flute and all solos and cadenzas in Capriccio Espagnol to Carolyn Finch.

Section 7

Jimmy Stevens leaves his good times at Ragsdale to his brother, Larry.

Section 8

Donald Routh leaves his good times in trigonometry to Felix Carroll.

Section 9

Tommy Watlington leaves Carole Albea his parking space in the parking lot.

to eat out to any junior who thinks he can get away with it.

Section 10

Butch Simmons leaves his position on the football team to anyone who thinks he can take it.

Section 11

Judi Morris leaves her ability to get along with Mrs. Oliver to Allen Bullis.

Section 12

Richard Putman leaves bus number 64 to anyone brave enough to drive it.

Section 13

Doug Roper leaves all the seats in the college-prep classes to his brother Jim, with the hope that he will be EVEN MORE successful than he was.

Section 14

Vickie Miller leaves the art of skipping school without getting caught to Patty Causey and Nancy Wisenburg.

Section 15

Sandra Napier leaves her short, fat legs to Joyce Honeycutt, who will be head majorette next year.

Section 16

Howard Dozier leaves to Mrs. Davis' future English classes his ability to make her class a brighter place to be.

Section 17

Ralph Underwood leaves Miss Boone to any Junior who thinks he can pass Chemistry.

Section 18

Kenneth Treadaway leaves his ability to get English homework in on time to anyone who is failing English.

Section 19

Brenda Kersey leaves her locker and desk in homeroom to anyone who is unfortunante enough to get them.

Section 20

Barbara Sossaman leaves the privilege of feeding Penny, Mrs. Lane's dog, to Sandra Rabhan, while working on the annual.

Section 21

Sue Warren leaves her blue eyes and long eye lashes to Janice Wagner.

Section 22

Linda Smith leaves to Steve Neal her ability to play on the piano only pieces having a B-b.

Section 23

Wayne Thomas leaves fourth period I. E. C. study hall to those taking I. E. C. next year.

Section 24

Judy Thompson leaves her long desired and unfulfilled ambition to be able to get in and out of mischief without getting caught to her brother Michael, that he might carry this through with great success. He'll need it!

Section 25

Sharon Sechrest leaves third year Algebra to anyone who is game enough to take it.

Section 26

Jackie Steele leaves her ability to get to 12th grade to Wayne Steele.

Section 27

Joan Taro leaves to Gayle Jones all the layouts and deadlines of the Annual.

Section 28

Sammy Wilson just leaves.

Section 29

Arden Yates leaves her ability to go to Nibbs and get caught to anyone crazy enough to try it.

Section 30

Loretta Puett leaves her ability to catch good lookin' guys in souped up Corvettes to any junior girl who can find them.

Section 31

Hudson Mann leaves his great senior basketball career to Wally Taylor.

Section 32

Mary Jo Smothers leaves her gray streak to Susan Hough.

Section 33

Glenda Hough leaves her love for Ragsdale High to Carolyn Sumner.

Section 34

Judy Haney leaves her seat in first period typing to anyone who takes it.

Section 35

Joyce Hodgkin leaves her desk in Mrs. Sharrack's fifth period study hall (that's the one by the register) to Ernie Johnson.

Section 36

Paul Milton leaves his wonderful memories of Ragsdale High School in the 12th grade to all the coming seniors.

Section 37

Rik Lea leaves his ability to make A's and B's to Timmy Jones.

Section 38

J. T. Crutchfield leaves his school bus, No. 206, to anybody that can handle it.

Section 39

Holt Davis leaves his badly worn Geometry book to anyone who will take it.

Section 40

Jack Beard leaves bus No. 189 to Bill Kimrey if Bill will keep it cleaner than he did.

Section 41

Roy Bowman leaves his ability

Section 42

Bill Thacker leaves his D. E.

book to anyone who can read it.

Section 43

Barbara Hester leaves her hair spray to Rose Mary McFadden.

Section 44

Carolyn Brower leaves the Guidance Office to all future secretaries.

Section 45

Joe Coble leaves his ability to get the sports news in after the deadline each month to L. A. Lamarr.

Section 46

Gayle Allred leaves to anyone in the junior class her locker that always seems to get jammed at the wrong time.

Section 47

Linwood Collins, in sound mind and good health, wills to his benefactor, Richard Collins, GIRL'S DAY at Boy's State and hopes Richard will enjoy it as much as he did.

Section 48

Janie Bergman leaves her hair-piece to anyone who wants it.

Section 49

Pam Bailey leaves the Tri-Hi-Y Club in the hands of Nancy Zirkel.

Section 50

Wanda Beeson wills the ability to make C's one six weeks and B's the other six weeks to any junior or senior crazy enough to take advanced biology.

Section 51

Tony Elliott leaves his ability to cut class and get caught by Mr. Moran to Judi Smith in hopes she can get by with it.

Section 52

Tommy Hill leaves his deep love for Algebra III to anyone who is dumb enough to take it.

Section 54

Gene Holmes leaves his ability to get along with teachers to Danny McClain.

Section 55

Nancy Garrett leaves bookkeeping to anyone who can make it come out.

Section 56

Gordan Jenkins leaves his ability to get along well with the faculty to whoever will accept the challenge.

Section 57

Linda Deaton leaves her ability to get away with things in band to anyone who thinks he can do better than her miserable failure.

Section 58

Mike Gray wills his extreme popularity to the next fortunata President of the Student Council.

Section 59

Beverly Dillon wills her part-