

time job to anyone with the ability to work and keep her grades too.

Section 60

Dan Self leaves to Kenneth Killgo his ability to out talk the teachers while talking and standing around in the halls.

Section 61

Amelia Ferguson leaves to David Wilson the unfortunate opportunity of taking Distribution Education II under the leadership of Mr. Homer Harden.

Section 62

Jamie Catlin leaves her naturally curly and at times "kinky" hair to Carolyn Ryan, who also hates hot, humid weather.

Section 63

Judy Bryant wills to Marilyn Lockridge her office practice filing set in hopes that she will learn her alphabet.

Section 64

Jerry Fruitt doesn't want to leave anything to anybody. He just wants to leave.

Section 65

Forrest Caudle, wills her seat in shorthand to anyone with patience enough to take it.

Section 66

Ken Honeycutt leaves his ability to sleep in class to Jimmy Pardue.

Section 67

James Killgo leaves his ability to have a sports car to Gary Jones.

Section 68

Patricia Hamner leaves the colored chalk in Miss Corum's art class to anyone who can find a piece large enough to hold.

Section 69

Pat Gardner leaves shorthand class to anyone who can afford four shorthand notebooks each week.

Section 70

Regina Craven wills her seat in Business Law to anyone who is brave enough to take it.

Section 71

Wanda Clark wills to Timmy Proctor Edward's ear to thump on the bus.

Section 72

Norma Byerly leaves to Regina Easter the bikini that was left to her by Carolyn Loflin, that was left to her by Carol Pope, etc., and advises Regina to wear it with care, since it is worn out.

Section 83

Darry Hawn leaves his French II grades to anybody who thinks they can use them.

Section 74

Donald King leaves his good sense of humor to anyone who wants it.

Section 75

Cathy Parham wills her good shorthand grades to any rising junior.

Section 76

Howard Sanders leaves his ability to see eye to eye with P. R. to Robert Glisson.

Section 77

Frank Israel leaves the school's gold tuba to Herbert Moody for next year's half-time shows at the football games.

Section 78

Tommy King leaves Barbara to no one.

Section 79

Butch Routh leaves his club meetings to anyone that can use them.

Section 80

Jean Jones leaves Peggy Underwood her shorthand pad and pen with the hope that she'll be able to obtain the goal of 120 w. p. m.

Section 81

Betty Trexler leaves two of her hubcaps to Richard Hughes to go with the two he already has.

Section 82

Carole Martin leaves all her extra credits to Donnie Varner because he needs them.

Section 83

Ronnie Kirkman leaves the ability to graduate from high school in six years, which Robert Freisinger left to him, to Jimmy Pardue.

Section 84

Duane Pierce leaves his ability in not keeping a girl friend very long to Richard Morris in hopes he will do better than Duane.

Section 85

Bill Groome leaves his bruises, scars, and torn britches to Jerry Readinger.

Section 86

Linda East leaves her ability in physics to Cathy Carr in hopes that she is better at remembering when Fass is giving a test.

Section 87

Barbara Wilkins leaves her seat in physics and all she learned (that wasn't physics) to any girl who can stay in there.

Section 88

Libby Shaver leaves the fuzz off Jerry Wall's ears that Jerry left her last year to Cheryl Smith in hopes that she will wear it well.

Section 89

Kathy Robinson wills her position on the cheerleading squad to Delores Rider.

Section 90

Judy Jones leaves to Danny Allen her desk with the broken top in Mrs. Gandy's homeroom.

Section 91

Sandra Moore leaves her peanut butter and jelly sandwiches to Curtis Smith and hopes that he has an earlier lunch period next year.

Section 92

Susan Miller, Bridgett McBride, and Cynthia Wolfe leave the ice cream shack and all the ice cream to Johnny Clendenon, Donald Murphy and Linda Maiden.

Section 93

Judy Kivette leaves Mr. Harden to David Brazelle in hopes that he won't have him next year.

Section 94

Ranny Waugh leaves his hooks, slices and 4-putt greens to the members of next year's golf team.

Section 95

Patsy Litzie leaves her nickname, Scratch, to anyone who can fill the qualifications.

Section 96

Delores McDonald leaves all of her silly poems written in book-keeping class to David Smith.

Section 97

Larry Veach leaves his ability to play golf at Sedgfield without being caught to anyone.

Section 98

Nancy Norman and Sarah Byrd leave their ability to get the first diamonds to anyone who can meet the qualifications.

Section 99

Nancy Sullivan leaves her singing ability to any talented junior girl who wants to cut a record.

Section 100

Dale Witcher wills his green Dodge to anyone who can put it back together.

Section 101

Sheila Winslow and Sharon Tate leave their ability to skip school, go to Carolina, and get caught to any junior brave enough to attempt it.

Section 102

Bill Baxter Byrd, Jr. wills to all underclassmen the ability to say "K.M.A." in French.

Section 103

Marie Poteat leaves her united cheerleading tennis shoes to Eda Hanes.

Section 104

Grady Lain leaves his parking sticker to anyone that wants it.

Section 105

Carole Granchi wills her broken Ford to her sister Brenda, in hopes that she can make it to school next year if it doesn't fall completely apart.

Section 106

Gary Metters leaves his English book to any junior who is lucky enough to have Mrs. Lane for English LV.

Section 107

Dianne Hill leaves the library

5th and 6th period for any one who wants it.

Section 108

Phyllis Johnson leaves her tank to Bobby Thacker in hopes that he will have a grand senior year.

Section 109

Connie Gay leaves her home library to Cynthia Fuqua.

Section 110

Ray Meadows leaves his title of Most School Spirit to Russell Hyden.

Section 111

Dee Ann Coley leaves her seat in Mr. Moss's trig and algebra class to any future mathematician taking college math.

Section 112

John Manning leaves one penny in locker No. 792 to anybody who can't remember the combination.

Section 113

Richard Morton leaves his seat in Miss Brown's French II class to anyone qui etudie bien.

Section 115

Carolyn Jones leaves Distributive Education to anyone that can stand it.

Section 116

Jean Hutchens leaves her seat in Business Law to anyone brave enough to sit in it.

Section 117

Frankie Phillips wills his ability to pass French II without knowing French I to Donald Williams.

Section 118

Danny Cagle leaves his ability in math to Ernie Johnson and hopes that he will be better in proving theorems next year.

Section 119

Jack Clinard leaves those wonderful trips to Jamestown sewer plant to anyone who takes economics.

Section 120

Barbara Adams leaves Spartanburg to Judy Lilly, and hopes that Judy will enjoy it as much as she has.

Section 121

Henry Wilson wills his special skills in P.E. to Mr. Conrad, as he could use them.

Section 122

Jimmy Finch wills his smile to Mike Horton only if he promises to use it for the betterment of romance.

Section 123

Jackie Grissom leaves his nice clean locker on the Senior hall to Judith Williams.

Section 124

Candy Blair leaves her newspaper convention memories to Gail Bentley and Diane Holt.

Joan Billings, Joyce McDonald, and Genell Loflin leave their seats in Glee Club to anyone who thinks she can sing well enough to be in it.