

DR. AND MRS. BREWER ENTERTAIN FACULTY AND TRUSTEES

Dr. and Mrs. Charles E. Brewer entertained the faculty and trustees of Meredith College at an informal reception held in the parlors of Main Building, Friday evening, September thirteenth. The affair, which was arranged in order to allow the members of "Meredith family" to become acquainted early in the year, was in every way a success. About one hundred guests called during the evening to meet the new faculty members and renew acquaintance with those returning after the summer's vacation. Miss Campbell and Miss Anna Eliza Brewer assisted Dr. and Mrs. Brewer in receiving. Refreshments were served late in the evening.

ARNOLD-WHITE

(News and Observer)

A pretty home wedding was solemnized in Windsor when Miss Ruby Fuller White, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. White, became the bride of Mr. Dennis Richard Arnold, of Raleigh.

The marriage took place at the home of the bride's parents. It was solemnized in the parlor which was softly lighted by candles and was decorated with flowers and ferns. The ceremony was performed by Rev. W. R. Haight, pastor of the Baptist church, of Wendell, who used the ring ceremony.

Before the ceremony Mrs. Stanley Leary sang "I Love You Truly." There were no attendants and the bride and bride-groom entered together to the strains of Mendelssohn's Wedding March, played by Miss Inez Matthews.

The bride wore a becoming suit of brown tricotine with hat to match, and a corsage of bride's roses. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. White, of Wendell. She is a graduate of Meredith College and taught voice at Mars Hill College last year.

The bride-groom is a young business man of Raleigh.

Immediately after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Arnold left for Raleigh where they will make their home.

NEW GIRLS DEPART FROM CUSTOM IN CHOICE OF SOCIETIES

This year there has been a slight difference in the method of the division of societies. According to our usual custom, the societies gave receptions on the first and second times of their meeting. The new girls were divided evenly, part going to one and the remaining to the other. Then they were allowed a week to think the matter over and make their choice. This year only one night was selected—Thursday evening of our second week here—and the girls were invited to both societies, "floating" from one to the other. The next morning at chapel Miss Campbell took a great weight from our shoulders by deciding to have the new girls make their choice then and there, the old girls leaving the auditorium. The result was fairly favorable all-round, both societies getting an even number of girls. Of course it could have been better for either one or the other; but how would the one feel if the other got one more? Thus we say the result was fairly favorable.

NEW OFFICERS

Owing to the unusual number of old girls who did not come back, many of the offices were left vacant. To fill these vacancies the following girls were elected: Lowney Olive, House President of Faireloth; Olivia Houghtt, Sub-House President of Faireloth; Juanita Arnette, House President of East; Lavita McLean, Sub-House President of East; Sara Noel, Vice President of the Athletic Association; Alice Lowe, Junior Editor of The Acorn; Carolyn Mercer Assistant Manager of the Oak Leaves; Hettie Huggins, Fire Chief; Katherine Noel, Vice President of Y. W. C. A.; Margaret Wyatt, Secretary of Y. W. C. A.; Winnie Mae Rowland, Chairman of Community Service; Lucile Insee, Treasurer of Y. W. C. A.; and Susie Herring, Corresponding Secretary of the Philarethian Literary Society.

INTERESTING PAGEANT PRESENTED BY THE Y. W. C. A. MEMBERS

On Sept. 25, at the regular Y. W. C. A. service, the Y. W. C. A. presented a pageant entitled "Through The Blue Triangle." The Pageant presented in a vivid and beautiful manner some of the things for which the Y. W. C. A. stands.

The cast, led by the Spirit of the Association, entered and took their places on the stage while singing "Oh, Zion Haste." Immediately the Spirit of the Community entered from the right of the stage. Upon enquiring the meaning of the Blue Triangle which the Spirit of the Association wore, the Spirit of the Association told her that it was the emblem of the Y. W. C. A. and asked the Triangle Girls to call the first great spirit which the Y. W. C. A. seeks. They responded by calling Inspiration who, followed by her dancers, came through the blue triangle at the back of the stage and stood in the center of the stage, while the dancers circled around her and at last knelt to her. They then left the center of the stage and the Triangle Girls called the next great spirit which the Y. W. C. A. brings to the community—Education, who, with her dancers, came to the center of the stage in a manner similar to that of the Spirit of Inspiration, following

(Continued on page 3)

CLASSICAL CLUB ORGANIZED

The Classical Club met last Thursday afternoon for its first meeting in Dr. Law's room. Several plans were talked over and discussed, but nothing definitely was decided upon. Refreshments, consisting of cream and cake were served by Dr. Law.

On Tuesday afternoon, there was a call meeting of the club and the following officers were elected:

President—Alethia Felton, Vice-President—Ruth Livermon, Sec. & Treas.—Janie Britton.

A committee of two, Alice Lowe and Daphne Owens, was appointed to draw up the constitution and by-laws, which are to be presented at the next meeting. The next meeting will be held on Tuesday afternoon Oct. 11.