

POPS AND CRACKLES

Letty Helton seeing Governor Morrison and his sister passing by,

"Oh, I believe I'll call on Mrs. Morrison tomorrow."

Soph talking to Newish after Y. W. Pageant. "Did you go to Y. W. meeting tonight?"

Virginia Barrier, "Oh, no, I didn't have an invitation." And noticing Soph's costume added, "Any way I didn't have a dress like yours and would have felt out of place."

B. McFarland on her way to Y. W.: "Do you have to take chapel seats tonight?"

Mabel Campbell on her way to S. Q. Meeting—"Oh, does the choir march in tonight?"

Mary Wall, Soph., running up steps to third floor main building. "Whew—I'm so tired!"

Newish Mary Blount Martin at head of steps adding comfortingly "Don't worry, honey, you'll get used to them."

Newish Helen Weaver stopping Miss Steele on the hall, "Will you tell me if you can get any soap at the Y store?"

Isobel De Vlaming—being informed by Junior that she would have to go to the library to take notes, asked innocently—"where is it—in Miss Campbell's office?"

M. Moore—Hearing old girls talking about going to Y. W. C. A. cabinet meeting. "Oh, we'll have to hurry back from our walk so as to be back in time to go."

Blanche Martin, worried Newish, talking to Frances Cherry, Soph.—"Look here at my schedule, see, there's a class at nine and one at eleven and can you tell me what I'm going to do at ten?"

Ruby Harvelle seeing Miss Badger on the hall cried, "Wait a minute and I'll go with you." Then added, "Say can you tell me where the Y store is, I've looked everywhere for the blamed thing and haven't found it yet!"

Dolly Grizzard seeking comfort from Soph. "Oh, I'm so afraid I'll flunk my Math!"

Soph. "Don't worry, maybe you won't flunk it, but just get an E and be conditioned."

Dolly. "I'd just as soon flunk it, as get an E and be campussed."

Fresh No. I passing Fresh No. II "Where's Faircloth Hall?"

Fresh No. II (Pointing to the Furnace House) "There it is over there."

Freshman at the "Y" store. "Give me 3 tablets, bottle of ink, a pencil, note book, 2 sticks of gum, 2 chocolate bars, and a box of hairpins. What, you don't sell hair pins? Some bum store!"

Betty Stuart (angry), "I can't get my schedule fixed. I've been to see Mr. Brewer, Dr. Boomhour and now I've got to go to Prof. Brown."

Margaret Duncan—"Juanita, where are you going to church today?"

Juanita—"I'm going to Pullen."

M. D.—"I don't know what you want to go there for when you can hear Dr. Tucker at the Tabernacle."

Juanita—"Today's the last Sunday we have to visit."

M. D.—"Well! I'll go to Pullen on one of my cuts."

Juanita—"Miss Campbell says, 'Girls attending Pullen must go on the street-car.'"

ROSA HOCUTT B. Y. P. U.

Folks, the Rosa Hocutt Union is still right on the job.

Being the first Union to go over the top in securing the largest number of new members, we organized a new Union and named it in honor of Miss Sophia Lamean, one of our first Meredith representatives in China.

Wednesday night, October 5, the two Unions met in a joint meeting and Leona Harris was elected president for the new Union.

After the business meeting, a very enjoyable program was rendered. "The Golden Rule" being the topic for discussion.

The officers and members of both Unions are just bubbling over with enthusiasm and ready to give the other Unions a race for the State Banner.
