Virgie Harville (in Senior class meeting)—"Order!"

Elizabeth Daniels (sleepily)—"Ham and eggs!"

Burwell McFarland—"I'm tired of always being the goat."

Isabel de Vlaming—"Then why don't you stop butting in?"

Margaret Overton—"Papa said that you had more money than sense."

Young Man—"Ha! that's one on your Pa. I broke."

Margaret—"Yes, he added that you were."

Freshman's Mother—"Yes, Mary is taking Latin and Algebra."

Friend—"Indeed."

Mother—Johnny say "Good morning to the lady in Algebra."

"Mr. Perry—"What was the noise I heard?"

Donace—"That was only a student falling asleep."

Mary B.—"Blanche, its raining."

Blanche—"Well, let it rain."

Mary—"I was going to."

MYSTERY

There are some things we don't understand,

Now take for instance "college"—

Perhaps it's chance or maybe 'twas planned;

Why does it rhyme with "knowledge?"

—N. Y. Mercury.

Being conceited is the only satisfaction some men find in life.

—Cornell Widow.

CAUSE AND EFFECT

He rose with great alacrity—

To offer her his seat;

'Twas a question whether she or he should stand upon his feet.

—Exchange.

I hate women and I'm glad I hate 'em 'cause if I didn't hate 'em I'd like 'em and I hate 'em.

—Brown Jug.

Isabel—"I've lived on vegetables for two weeks."

Jackie—"That's nothing. I've lived on earth for twenty years."

Who is the meanest man in the world? Why the guy who proposes to an old maid over the telephone and after she accepts him, tells her he had the wrong number.

—Williams Purple Cow.

Tell me not in mournful number,
Life is but an empty dream;
I have eaten raw cucumbers,
And I find that life's a scream.

—Exchange.

It takes a mighty little red hair to put the finishing touches to an awful big temper.

—White Mule.

She—"I wonder if you remember me? Twenty years ago you asked me to marry you."

Absent-minded Prof.—"Ah, yes, and did I?"

When a girl looks sweet enough to eat don't give her the opportunity.

Burwelle—"He wrote me that when he graduates he will settle down and marry the sweetest girl in the world."

Bernice—"How horried of him when he is already engaged to you."

Bruce Crater—"Then this is absolutely final?"

Mary Tatam—"Yes, shall I return your letters?"

Bruce—"I'd be glad to have them back. They're good enough to use again."

Prof. Riley—"Between what countries was the Spanish-American war fought, Miss Mary Bowers?"

Mary—"I don't believe I know, unless it was between England and America."

He—"They say that kisses are the language of love."

She—"Then, why don't you say something?"

"To be college bred means a four-year loaf, requiring a great deal of dough, as well as plenty of crust."

Bragging Fresh—"My grandfather built the Rocky Mountains."

Soph—"That's nothing. You've heard of the Dead Sea? Well, my grandfather killed it."

Kissing a girl after you have asked her permission is just like getting a rain check after the eighth inning.

Recipe for an ingenue—A pound and three-quarters of kitten, three ounces of flounces and sighs; add wiggles and giggles and gurgles, and wringlets and dimples and eyes.

Life.

Elaine Goode (in bed, to alarm clock as it goes off)—"I fooled ye that time, I wasn't asleep at all."

Manager (five and ten cent store)—"What did the lady who just went out want?"

Shop Girl—"She inquired if we had a shoe department."

The college is a coy maid—

She has a habit quaint

Of making eyes at millionaires

Ang winking at the faint.

It is remarkable how many doubtful meanings an alleged pure-minded person can find in an entirely respectable joke.

—Cornell Widow.

"Words fail me," muttered the small boy as he flunked the spelling.

—Exchange.

Portia—"How do you find this tea?"

Louise—"Say, this tea is so weak that I'm leaving it on the table to rest up a bit."

"Funny it never repeats itself to me," said the puzzled student over his History examination.

Blanche Stokes—"Is my face dirty, or is it my imagination?"

Lorraine Sawyer—"I don't know about your imagination but your face is clean."

N. C. STATE SERENADES AFTER TRINITY GAME

WINNERS IN FOOTBALL GAME FOLLOW TIME-HONORED CUSTOM

Ray, ray, rah, rah, Meredith, Meredith, Meredith," always sends a thrill to the heart of every Meredith girl, when this acclamation is announced in a chorus of masculine voices from one of the surrounding boys' schools. Saturday night the girls were brought hurrying to the porches by such a chorus from State College who come to celebrate their victory over Trinity in the foot ball game, the score being fourteen to nothing. After many exchanges of greetings and best wishes in the form of peppy yells and songs, State College passed on giving peace to a crowd of noble followers of the Old Gold and Black who came to share with us their victory over Carolina.
