great care and precision, and each member of the staff promises a whole-hearted aid to the chief. The staff is as follows:

- Managing Editor.....Ruth Boyce
- Assistant Editors: Crystal Davis, Bessie Jackson, Dorothy Dunning
- Business Manager.....Blanche Stokes
- Assistant Business Managers: Mary Love Davis, Sybil Myers
- Circulation Manager.....Mary Allison
- Circulation Assistants: Lena Covington, Margaret Lassiter, Mable Clare Hargood, Madeline Elliott.

With such an excellent staff the outlook for THE TWIG is very bright and the year 1925-26 promises great things.

SPRING IS IN THE AIR

I wonder how many of us ever notice the condition of the grounds up near the walls of our dormitories. Well, if we ever pause for a moment's survey, some of the things that we see are paper bags, newspapers, fruit peelings of various sorts, chewing gum wrappers, ink bottles, small paper boxes, and many other kinds of rubbish. Of course, we unthoughtfully walk to our windows and pitch such rubbish out and down to the campus below, or even if we think, our thoughts probably are, "Oh, well, I suppose Mr. Ferrell will have the campus raked tomorrow." But, instead of that, maybe it is several days before the campus is raked and along comes a "March wind" and the paper and other lighter bits of trash are hurled in every direction over the campus. And what must the passers-by think of us? Even if they were required to pass Meredith at the rate of ten miles per hour, they could not help being astonished at the unsightly condition of our grounds sometimes. There are waste baskets provided for us on every hall, so let's put our trash in them henceforth and watch the results. Spring is in the air and the little bulbs that have been buried in the earth all winter and kept warm by the nice layer of rubbish we provided for them are peeping out now and trying to blossom and beautify our campus. Let's all cooperate and give them a fair chance.

RUTH PEARCE ASTRO PRESIDENT 1925-26

ASTROTEKTON'S ELECT RUTH PEARCE PRESIDENT 1925-26

The annual election of Astrotekton officers for the year 1925-26 took place in the college chapel Monday night.

Ruth Pearce, whose loyalty and efficiency have been proven during her three years of membership, was elected president for the coming year. Ruth has shown her competence in many positions since entering Meredith and the society is assured of an efficient administration next year.

Catherine Shields was chosen as vice-president and Elizabeth Bush as secretary. The treasurer for the incoming year is Clarissa Poteat and the corresponding secretary is Elinor Lane. The marshals are to be Margaret Cone Tucker, chief, assisted by Ruth Boyce, Rachel Daniel and Hattie Bradley.

I believe that even I would break a few records.

I made some Parker House rolls on cooking lab the other day. They were real good, but when I baked them they exploded like pop-corn.

I've decided to let my hair grow out. Don't ask me what for, because the correct thing is "Who for?"

Mama, I really need some new clothes. I saw something very nice in silk hose the other day. And, Mama, I'm sorry you don't want me to wear my skirts so short, because you must know that I have my own good reasons for doing so. And I'm not going to have Papa cut my allowance. It's not big enough, anyway. And I'm going to New York for the spring holidays, even if you do say come home. And I am not going to stop going with Tom.

Your dutiful daughter,
MARIE.

EDITOR OF ANNUAL ELECTED BY STUDENTS

MARtha LIVERMON ELECTED EDITOR-IN-CHIEF OF OAK LEAVES

Martha Livermon as Editor-in-Chief of The Oak Leaves for the year 1925-26 would seem to meet every requirement for such a position. It is certain that Martha has sufficient talent and ability to make a success of this undertaking. Her delightful and pleasing personality will help make us an Annual which will reflect our feelings toward our old friends and surroundings at Meredith.

To be associated with Martha there have been chosen those who will best fill their particular places. They are:

- Martha Livermon, Editor-in-chief;
- Maude Bowers, associate editor;
- Virginia Penny, art editor;
- Clarissa Poteat, Margaret Haywood, junior editors;
- Hattie Bradley, Madeline Elliott, sophomore editors;
- Lucy Knight, Lois Stafford, assistant editors.

Jack—"Of course, being back in Raleigh I miss the cows and sheep, and pigs, and things."

Burwelle McF.—"Oh, yes, but we still have each other, darling."
