

ALUMNAE

Miss Bertha Carroll, Chowan College, Murfreesboro, N. C.
Recording Secretary, Mrs. Charles C. Harriss, Rocky Mount, N. C.

We are printing in our columns this week, copies of the old "Astro" and "Phi" songs by special request.

Philaretian Society Song
Oh, Philaretians, wake to glory.
(Air: The Marseillaise)
Hark, hark, the faithful bid you rise!
Past triumphs told in song and story Bid you press on to win the prize.
And lo, thy daughters, Philaretia, Thy glory bright will e'er uphold New fame shall future days unfold
And thou shalt triumph all victorious.

Then rise and glory win,
Take up thy laurels fair.
Then raise, oh raise all voices high In Philaretian praise.

Press onward with your chief to glory,
Your violet banner raised on high,
Oh linger none, but sing the story,
The boost and pride of every Phi
The story of our Philaretia.
So brave and truly by her side,
And standing nobly by her side Together we press on to victory.

Astrotekton Society Song
(Air: Watch on the Rhine)
They come, the voices of the land,
And cry to us for heart and hand.
The sea sends back the thundering roar,
"We need thee most along the shore."

Chorus:

We hear thy call, we come to thee;
We hear thy call, we come to thee,
We Astro girls will watch the stars with glee,
We Astro girls will watch the stars,
the sea.

The earth demands that we live here,
While bright and fair in airy sphere
The stars send down the silvery call,
"The old earth must not have you all."

Ye, Astro girls, the cry is loud; Shouts come to us through sun and cloud.

Then shout the answer once again,
And sing aloud the glad refrain.

"Oh, Here's where we may turn and go —Down paths of memory Back to the land we used to know, the Land of used to be."

This thought has run through the minds of many Meredith Alumnae of Richmond County of recent days.

The new interest in Meredith was aroused within dormant alumnae by reason of a Meredith night in connection with the Centennial Campaign here in Rockingham. As a result a Meredith Alumnae Club was organized in Richmond County on Thursday, February 23.

Meeting at the home of Mrs. A. W.
Porter in Rockingham the Club was organized with the following officers: President, Mrs. A. W. Porter; Vice President, Mrs. J. F. Butler, Hoffman;
Secretary and Treasurer, Mrs. Chas. B.
Deane, Rockingham; Miss Allie Mc-Intosh, Reporter.

Following the organization the Club pledged itself to a program that will bring about an influence with High School graduates to attend Meredith; keeping in close touch with our Richmond County girls now at Meredith, and at all times knowing what our College has as its program. And doing our part to see the Centennial come

TRACK PRACTICE
GOING FORWARD

ENTHUSIASM AND PEP

GIRLS IMPROVING AND WORKING

"Oh! me! oh my leg, oh my arm!"
Groaned many girls on Tuesday morning as they rolled out of bed stiff and sore. And what for? Why track of course. They had gone out on the athletic field the day before to learn the proper way to hurdle, get started for the hundred yard dash, throw the baseball and basketball and hurl the discus and javelin. Since exercise had been for a long time practically unknown to them they were as they expressed it just about dead."

However that was two weeks ago.
This morning after an afternoon of track, they wake up feeling fine and ready for all the Math and Latin that ever existed. Part of this good feeling comes from track exercise and part of it comes from keeping training rules.
Of course they keep the rules, since the secret of success in track is to keep in good condition. Every girl that is not coming out for track should surely start practicing as soon as possible. There's a better way in the world to get recreation and the exercise keeps you in good health, then too, you surely want to help your class be first in track activities.

Up to this time the following girls have been out for track:

Bessie Barker, Ruth Lowdermilk, Victoria Boney, Belle Bryant, Mary Cheeves, Zelma Hocutt, Louise Ange, Alma Hocutt, Sara Cobb, Miriam Daughtery, Lydia Beavers, Mary Morgan, Dot Rowland, Mattie Lassiter, Elizabeth James, Elizabeth Boomhour, Gretchen Cheek, Lucy Buchanan, Bernice Snider, Nettie Pearl Tillie, Francis Scarborough, Sarah Briggs, Mathilda Holleman, Elizabeth Apple,
Mary Virginia King, Elizabeth Ayscue, May Belle Lee, Juanita Sorrell, Doris Hewlett, Eunice Boone, Estelle Wilkins, Jo Bradley, Jane Green, Mary Buie, Lora Dills, Katie Lee Watson, Margaret Lucas, Sybil Hamrick, Sarah Oliver, Mary Lee Copeland.

We have heard it whispered that thru to a glorious end for our Alma Mater.

Those attending the meeting gained that old spirit of Meredith, her ideals and visions and would "go back to the land we used to know—the land of used to be."

We feel that this renewal of the visions, ideals and thoughts of the past will enable us to live a better present.

horseback riding is becoming a sport at Meredith! Just watch out for our sports.

EUROPEAN TOUR

judge in what their fellow-students over here would be interested.

The fact that the tours are subsidized and that much private hospitality is offered on the other side enables the C. I. E. to set the price much lower and the time actually spent in Europe much longer than the average tour.
More than eight full weeks are spent in Europe, including two weeks left entirely to the devices of the student tourists in Paris and Geneva. Free time is also given in other countries visited. Unlike many other so-called student tours, these are run on an absolutely non-profit basis.

The C. I. E. has emphasized in its preliminary announcement that it is best able to entertain small groups, so parties are limited to fourteen, including the student leader. There are ten tours being offered, in all of which time is allowed in London, Paris and Geneva. Two of these, devoting five weeks to Europe have been especially introduced this year to meet the needs of students who are unable to devote a longer time to their European visit.
But as far as possible the members of these tours will receive the same cordial welcome and intimate insight into student foreign life as the others.

The Student Council is in possession of further information about these tours. Student considering them are urged to take prompt action. Several tours are already booked to the maximum and the limited number to be provided for will soon be enrolled.
