

WAKE FOREST WINS DEBATE*(Continued from page one)*

The Meredith girls and many people from Raleigh enjoyed the debate immensely. The judges were A. J. Maxwell, Stewart Robeson, and W. A. Stanbury.

Wake Forest won with a vote for the negative from all three judges.

We enjoyed hearing the debate and extend the debaters and visitors a cordial invitation to visit our college again.

Switzerland. The father of Charles Gos, Albert Gos, is one of the most celebrated landscape painters of Switzerland at present.

Imbued with the same love for the scenic beauties of the Alps, the son has breathed their loveliness into fiction and literature. He is one of the best known magazine and newspaper writers on the continent. He not only writes for Paris newspapers, but also for those of Switzerland. He has been present at every conference of the League of Nations since its foundation, and is an authority upon the workings of this organization, which has for its ultimate object the promulgation of universal peace through arbitration.

This is the third visit of Charles Gos to the United States, and he not only delivers lectures under the auspices of the Alliance Française, but also superintends the exhibition of a magnificent collection of his father's paintings in the various galleries of our large cities. At present there is an exhibition of over a hundred paintings of Albert Gos at Atlanta, Georgia.

Charles Gos will remain in this country two months longer, after which he will return to his home in Geneva for the summer. He expects to be back in the United States next winter to give a series of lectures.

The members of the Senior French Class are planning to present a French play very soon, in all probability during the coming week. The subject of the drama is an intensely humorous one—L'Anglais Telle Qu'On Le Parle.

Christ" which they are striving to live up to. After a short business meeting a social hour was enjoyed, it being the desire of the officers to bring the members of the class in closer contact with each other.

It seems rather strange that the largest Meredith class should have the highest percentage, but this is true. Of the 61 members enrolled in this class 58 were present Sunday, 58 had Bibles and every member of the class had a prepared lesson. The group captains kept right behind the members of their group and encouraged the members throughout the week to do their part toward the work of the class.

Are the other six classes going to let the Caviness Class continue to be ahead? With the motto "Forward For Christ" we expect this class to continue their good work.

ful, and it was indeed one of the most enjoyable functions of the year.

The banquet room was decorated in the fraternity colors, blue and white, and the color scheme was carried out during the entire evening. The guests found their places by attractive place cards.

Dr. J. W. Nowell was toastmaster for the occasion and a number of humorous and witty toasts and responses were given. President and Mrs. Gaines were special guests at the banquet.

The gentlemen of the chapter were accompanied by friends of the other sex, with approximately fifty or sixty guests present. Each of the young ladies was presented with a box of candy as a favor.

Girls attending from Meredith were: Louise Sullivan, Mary Louise Huffman, Margaret Craig, Janie Burns, Lora Dills, Elizabeth Hollowell, Sara Whitley, Maisie Patterson and Elma Holding.

covered any peanuts and the boys, as dogs, must bark, a very unusual noise resulted. The cats won the contest, and were presented with a rubber dog.

After the exciting contest, partners were found for playing "anagrams," and this interspersed with conversation, lasted the major part of the evening. The main feature of the program, however, was an experiment in hypnotism, performed by Mr. R. H. Harrill, of State College, upon Mr. Charles Horkey. The experiment was interesting, not to say amusing.

Refreshments of ice cream and cake were served, and then, as usual, "it was ten o'clock." Miss Herndon proved to be quite a popular chaperone, and a very "enjoyable time was had by all."

Evelyn Jolley and Louise Ledford, have served very efficiently as President and Secretary respectively, of the Meredith Chapter of the Cleveland County Club.

charming and pretty as the outside. There are many conveniences in the house that the girls admired.

The girls in the Household Management class are now working away on furnishing their homes. If any one wonders why Meredith girls are visiting the downtown furniture stores they need not be alarmed because they are only learning how!

JANIE BURNS WINS STATE THEATRE TICKETSCOLTON ENGLISH CLUB MEETS

The English Club held its regular monthly meeting last Friday afternoon. The writer discussed was Thomas Nelson Page. An interesting talk on "Page's Treatment of the Negro" was given by Maisie Patterson, after which Dr. Harris read very entertainingly "Uncle Edinburg's Drown-din'." Because of the absence of several members, several numbers had to be left off the program.

Delicious refreshments consisting of punch and cakes were served.

BETTER SPEECH WEEK

Miss Spruill, Miss Burris, Miss Parker, Dr. Harris, and Dr. Johnson talked at different schools or colleges in the city.

Miss Nell Coffey and Howard Mumford of the Senior Class at Meredith also talked on Better Speech Week in the Raleigh Schools.

The moving picture companies in the city have kindly consented to show slides to aid in better speech.

The girls at Meredith are urged to correct their speech and get into the spirit of Better Speech Week and make all our weeks Better Speech Weeks.
