Alumnae Tea

The Henderson Chapter of Meredith Alumnae entertained attractively about fifty high school seniors of Oxford, Warrenton, Middleburg, and Henderson at a tea on October 18, from four to five-thirty o'clock, at the home of Mrs. W. W. Parker, Henderson.

The chapter was particularly happy and fortunate to have on the program two members of the music faculty of Meredith College, Miss Martha Galt, pianist and accompanist, and Miss Emily Parsons, vocalist, each of whom rendered several solos. Miss Mae Grimmer, alumnae secretary, was also present, and spoke informally of the college.

Mrs. Parker, president of the chapter, announced that although this was the regular monthly meeting date, no business would be transacted, since this tea had been planned as the special social meeting of the year. Dainty refreshments consisting of punch, sandwiches, and salted nuts were served by members of the chapter.

Elizabeth City Chapter Organized

A chapter of Meredith College Alumnae was organized Thursday afternoon, September 12, at the home of Miss Annabelle Abbott on West Church Street, when a number of former Meredith girls assembled to meet Miss Mae Grimmer, the college alumnae secretary.

Miss Grimmer spoke briefly on the high standing of the college, the successful careers of its graduates, and the loyalty of its alumnae.

Miss Lillie Grandy, a special guest, spoke along the same lines, stressing the need for loyal support of the college and the value of telling the world of its accomplishments.

Mrs. R. L. Kendrick was elected president, with Miss Annie Wood Harris secretary; Mrs. Herbert Peele, vice-president; Mrs. Rupert West, of Moyock, treasurer, and Miss Minnie Nash, chairman of the program committee.

Many of the alumnae who were unable to attend this meeting sent messages expressing their loyalty and enthusiasm.

Miss Grimmer left Thursday night for Raleigh, with the assurance that the chapter would carry on in fine style this winter.—Elizabeth City Daily Advance.

Personals

Elizabeth Kendrick, '23, and Mr. Charles Douglas Faucette were married October 23, at the Baptist Church, Hertford, N. C.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. B. Dowell (Gladys Leonard, '25), of Raleigh, announce the birth of a son, on October 16, 1929. Mrs. Dowell was librarian of Meredith College during the sessions 1927-'28 and 1928-'29.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. W. Ricks, of Whitakers, announce the birth of a daughter, Eva Frances, on July 6, 1929. Little Miss Eva Frances is the daughter of Mary Lucile Jones, of the class of 1927, and granddaughter of Eva Sledge, who was a student at Meredith in 1903.

The alumnae register reveals that the following have called at the college during State Home-Coming Week:

Annie D. Denmark, '08, president of Anderson College, Anderson, S. C., on October 15.

Mrs. C. O. Abernethy (Mary Ray, '09), of Raleigh, October 15.

Elizabeth Rogers, '29, of Durham, October 16-19.

Mrs. O. H. Browne (Mary Martin Johnson, '21), of Lexington, Va., October 19.

Ivy Grace Doughton, '26, of Denton, October 19-20.

THE CLASS OF 1933 COMES TO TOWN

Where is my key to the campus gate?
 How do I join a frat?
 Where does a chap matriculate?
 Must I wear that funny hat?
 Where do I buy my chapel seat?
 How do I get some books?
 Where in the world does a freshman eat?
 Is the Dean as fierce as he looks?
 Where do I play on the football team?
 Are you sure this is fit to drink?
 Where can I get some good ice cream?
 So it's here that one learns to think?
 Where can I find the campus cop?
 Should I use the library?
 When does this sophomore hazing stop?
 Will Prexy call on me?
 Where can I have my laundry done?
 Why can't the new men smoke?
 I don't play cards except in fun.
 What happens when you're broke?
 Is there such a thing as the college jail?
 Need a Tux for the social whirl?
 Where can I send important mail?
 I've got to write my girl!

Coincidence

Two farmers met at a crossroads. "Sy," said one, "what did you give your horse last when he was sick?" "Turpentine," said Sy. "Giddap!" A week later they met again. "Sy," said the farmer, "I gave my horse turpentine, and he died." Sy responded briefly, "So'd mine. Giddap!"

B.S.U. NOTES

Miss Madaline Elliott, the student secretary of Meredith, spent the day last Sunday, October 20, in Wake Forest. She was the principal speaker in the opening exercises of Wake Forest Sunday School Department. This is the first year that Wake Forest has had an organized Sunday School Department. They are doing fine work under the leadership of Mr. Tom Lawrence.

Meredith's quota for the State Students' Conference is thirty girls. Consult the student secretary about ways and means of transportation. Let us make it fifty!!

An intensive campaign is being planned for the Baptist Student Drive among the new girls who did not have an opportunity to subscribe last year, and for those among the old girls who will subscribe in advance. The names of the new girls who are in charge of the subscriptions are: Ruth Lanford, Alice Hall, Charlotte Palmer, Birdie Lee Debnam, Betty Thomason, Dorothy McGhee, Mattie Larkin Smith, Eliza Turner, Annette Donavant, Josephine Broadwell, Isabel Kinsey, Martha Viccellio, Margaret Briggs, and Margaret Dodd. Those who are in charge of subscriptions from the old girls are: Ellen Bradsher, Sarah Cullom, Lottie Belle Myers, Eleanor Lamm, Margaret Peacock, and Emma Hartsell.

Marguerite Mason, the president of the B. S. U., represented Meredith on Sunday, October 20, in the Mount Zion Association, assisting State B. Y. P. U. workers in enlisting the churches of that association in a B. Y. P. U. enlargement campaign, which is to be held during the week of November 3-9.

Marguerite spoke in churches where there were no unions or in churches where this definite campaign had not been voted upon. Her first talk was in the Sunday School service at the First Baptist Church in Hillsboro. She spoke at the Mebane Baptist Church at the Sunday morning church hour.

On Sunday afternoon Marguerite had charge of the afternoon church service at Mount Moriah Baptist Church, also a church of the Mount Zion Association. Her talks were based on the value of training service to a church, what B. Y. P. U. is and does for the church, and the importance of an enlargement campaign to improve the training service for young people.

The Foreign Service Band held its first regular meeting Sunday night, October 20, in the B. S. U. office, with the president, Gladys Blaylock, in charge. Miss Elliott conducted the devotionals, using as her topic Christ's words, "Follow me, and I will make you fishers of men." In order to be fishers of men we must follow Christ. This necessitates true consecration—of heart, soul, mind, body, and will. Each of the members present told of her plans for her life-work, and the foreign country in which she is planning to serve. After singing "I'll Go Where You Want Me to Go," the song adopted by the band, the members joined in a chain of sentence prayers.

The Foreign Service Band consists of those students who have decided definitely to do mission work in foreign fields. The members meet twice each month, on the first and third Thursdays, at five o'clock, in the B. S. U. office to discuss current mission news and problems. Occasionally an outside person speaks to the volunteers. Everyone who is interested in foreign missions is invited to attend the meetings.

The members of the Band are Gladys Blaylock, Oreon Bostick, Ruth Hough, Rachael Marshburn, Norma Lee Phelps, Rachael Price, and Lucile Ward.

On Sunday night, October 20, the Nell Fowler Y. W. A., with Mary Lee as leader, had charge of the vesper services. In the absence of Kathleen Durham the Y. W. A. director, Charlotte Tedder, vice-director, presided. After several songs Vida Miller led the devotionals, which were in keeping with the program of the evening.

The playlet given by the Nell Fowler Circle was entitled "Privilege and Responsibility." Twenty-six girls from the circle took part in this playlet. The predominating idea was the fact that young women have a privilege as well as a responsibility in being torch-bearers for Christ.

STUDENT OPINION

of pity, sympathy, ridicule, scorn, etc., of the whole town?

I thought about this all day, dreamed about it that night, pondered over it all next day, and finally came to the conclusion that walking is much too modern a thing for the people of this age to readily accept. Since they have never had to walk they don't know how much fun it is. Probably in the next generation they will accept this new custom. But it is so hard to make people take up new things!

So, since I have concluded that walking is the most modern thing possible, I have decided to fall right in with the new fad. Really, it is quite the thing to do, and I suggest that you try it sometime—only, I warn you not to wear your spike heels, because in contact with a mile or so of hard-surface they soon become rather boring.
