

B.S.U. NOTES

Meredith Girls Attend B.Y.P.U. Meeting

The Raleigh Associational B. Y. P. U. held its regular meeting in two sessions at the Cary Baptist Church in Cary, N. C., on April 30. The afternoon session took the form of a cabinet meeting where plans for the next month's associational work were discussed.

The after-dinner session was the regular associational meeting. Mr. James A. Ivey was the leader of an enthusiastic group discussion at this meeting.

The B. Y. P. U.'s of the Cary Baptist Church were hostesses at a banquet in the church basement between the two sessions of the meeting. A delicious menu of fried chicken, giblet gravy, creamed potatoes, tomato salad on lettuce hearts, candied sweet potatoes, pickles, hot biscuits, Neapolitan ice-cream and pound cake, and coffee was served.

Those Meredith girls attending the meeting were: Miriam Brady, president of the Winnie Rickett B. Y. P. U.; Prue Choate, president of the Charles E. Brewer Union, and next year's newly elected general B. Y. P. U. officers, Velma Preslar, general director; Georgia Cowan, assistant director, and Gertrude Bostick, secretary and treasurer.

Morning Watch On Sunday

One of the best attended and most inspirational services of the year was the Morning Watch services which were held in the court last Sunday morning at 7:30. Several visitors and about 150 girls were present.

Kathleen Durham, Y. W. A. president, presided over the devotional period. After the song, "Holy, Holy, Holy," she led the group in prayer. Mary Lee gave a reading on God in nature.

Miss Elliot made the principal talk. Her discussion was on "Mountain Heights of Inspiration Leading to a Nobler Life." Many Scripture verses were woven into helpful suggestions for the Christian life. Afterward the song, "Take My Life and Let It Be," was sung as a dedication prayer.

Committee Meetings This Week

Committees have been appointed from the ten B. Y. P. U.'s on the campus for the business of nominating the union general officers for the coming year. Reports are to be made in the next union meetings.

Where Were You Sunday?

Were you at Sunday School last Sunday morning? If you weren't, you missed a most helpful message. You missed a greater part of the weekly spiritual food needed for a well balanced Christian.

Wake Forest Union Entertains

Brothers and sisters in B. Y. P. U. met Friday afternoon when the boys from "D" Union at Wake Forest came over and took the girls of the Perry Morgan Union to Allen's Pond for a picnic. By a large fire on the bank of the pond weinies were roasted. Sandwiches and iced lemonade were also served. All the Meredith girls reported that the Wake Forest boys are real hosts.

The Astrotekton and Philaretian literary societies presented the visitors with lovely corsages. The guests accompanied their hostesses to the various Raleigh churches Sunday morning, and those who stayed over till Sunday evening had the opportunity of hearing Dr. Poteat's colorful program of organ music Sunday afternoon.
