SCOTLAND NECK CHAPTER

The local branch of the Meredith College Alumnae Association held its second meeting since the chapter's organization in the early summer, on Friday afternoon, September 5, at 5 o'clock on the lawn of the Baptist Church.

Mrs. Ralph Phillips, president, presided. The chief items of business were the deciding upon amount of dues each member should pay annually, and the appointing of a committee to assist in the collection of the Centennial Campaign Fund.

After the business session a social hour was enjoyed, during which sandwiches and tea were served.

Those present were: Mrs. Ralph Phillips, Mrs. Leland Kitchin, Mrs. Annie Henderson, Mrs. Ernest Leggett, Mrs. L. L. Cherry, Mrs. William Clark, Mrs. Douglas Temple, Mrs. Joe Whitehead, Misses Mary and Doris Tillery, and Miss Mary Bess VanLandingham who enters Meredith College as a Freshman this fall.

CHURCH RELATIONSHIP DAY AT MEREDITH

"There are one of three possibilities open to college students in regard to church relationships," pointed out Mrs. Frank Castlebury in her talk on

Edwin Vick, the wedding to take place October 11.

DOING GRADUATE STUDY

Margaret Craig, '30, Chloris Kellum, '30, and Mary Louise Huffman, '30, are working toward their M.A. degrees at Columbia University. Mildred Oliver, '27, is at Syracuse University studying for a degree in Library Science. Elizabeth James, '30, has entered Yale University. Eugenia Thomas, '20, is working for her M.A. in music at the New York University.

VISITORS

Hattie Sue Hale Newcomb, '09 (Mrs. C. B.), of Wilmington, spent the past Saturday and Sunday with "Son" in the college infirmary.

Nettie Pearle Tilley, of Fuquay Springs, and Nell Barrier, '30, of Durham, were week-end guests of Myrtle Barrow.

Oleene Braswell, '26, of Severn, registered in the alumnae office Sunday, October 5.

Maie Hinson Porter, ex-'06 (Mrs. A. W.), of Rockingham, spent Sunday, September 28, here with her Freshman daughter, Susie Maie.

Margaret Trotman, '30, who is teaching in Beaufort, and Pauline Kitchin, '30, who is teaching in Morehead City, were guests the week-end of September 28.

Annie Belle Noel, '28, and Sarah Cooke, '29, who are teaching in High Point, spent the week-end of September 27 with friends at the college.

"Why Join" in chapel Saturday morning, October 4. "One may move her church letter and be an active member of one of the town churches, or she may be affiliated by card, or come under 'watch-care' her college church. Being a Meredith College student does not by any means signify that one is permitted to go to Baptist churches only," she made clear. "The importance of church relationship does not lie in the denominational side but rather in the fact of being definitely allied with the church in which one feels most at home and best capacitated to serve."

Mrs. Castlebury then had some of the girls distribute little pamphlets among the students entitled "Why Join the Church at College."

After reading these "Reasons" Mrs. Castlebury said that Sunday, October 5, was Student Church Relationship Day for the churches all over the South and that her talk was a reminder of that fact. "It is really most important that one either move her church letter or ally herself in some definite way with her college church," she concluded.

The Baptist Student Union had charge of the exercises and Mary Currin, president, officiated. Kathleen Durham had charge of the devotions and made a short talk on the "Meaning of the Church." Alma Dark sang a solo.

B. Y. P. U. RALLY CREATES INTEREST IN ORGANIZAT'N

Mr. Lee also sang several songs, after which he asked the student body to join in two short choruses. Miss Kathleen Young then invited all the new girls to a B. Y. P. U. party in the grove at 4:45 o'clock.

The climax of Rally Day came at 6:45 o'clock at the general B. Y. P. U. assembly in the auditorium. The president of the B. Y. P. U., Velma Preslar, introduced Mildred Hickline, who conducted the devotional exercises. She read Luke 12:42-44 and gave a few minutes' talk on the theme of Stewardship. Miss Madeline Elliot then led the assembly in prayer.

Margaret Peacock, representing the Spirit of the B. Y. P. U., came in and told about her eight helpers who followed her representing present, on time, daily Bible reading, studied lesson, giving, study course, on program, and preaching attendance. After Margaret read the B. Y. P. U. pledge, the president asked all those who would, to sign it.

The assembly meeting closed with a song by Alma Dark, accompanied on the piano by Lucille Hanby. The members then adjourned to their individual unions where each studied the topic, "Higher Ground."
