WINSTON-SALEM CHAPTER HOLDS MEETING

The local organization of the Meredith College alumnae met on Thursday evening, October 16, with Mrs. J. M. Kesler at her home on Lockland Avenue, with Mrs. John Avera, associate hostess.

With the president, Mrs. Wingate Johnson, presiding, the entire afternoon was given over to the decidedly interesting and altogether fine address of Miss Catherine Allen, of the chair of modern languages of Meredith College, who spoke with enthusiastic charm to her audience on the general topic dear to the heart of each of her hearers, Meredith College.

Miss Allen gave a brief resume of the history of the college since its earliest conception as the old Baptist University, telling of its growth and upbuilding through the years, as Meredith College, and of its fine equipment-for service in its recently built new home.

She made a thrilling appeal to the alumnae of the college to strive to make the people "Meredith-minded," and to retain their love for their Alma Mater.

Amid a beautiful setting, with a color scheme of pink predominating in lovely autumn flowers used with decorative effect, delicious Russian tea, sandwiches and mints were served by the hostesses during the social hour following the address.—From the Winston-Salem Journal.

HENDERSON CHAPTER MEETS

The Henderson Chapter of Meredith Alumnae held its regular monthly meeting Wednesday afternoon, October 22, with Misses Lillian and Bessie Evans at their home on Chavasse Avenue.

After having various reports read and the routine business transacted, Mrs. W. W. Parker, president, turned the meeting over to Mrs. Sturges Collins, who had the program in charge.

Mrs. Collins had prepared an especially interesting program on current events at the college, and in this connection read a letter just received from Miss Mae Grimmer, Alumnae Secretary.

During the social hour following the program, the hostesses served delicious refreshments.—By the Secretary of the Chapter.

DURHAM ALUMNAE

The Durham Chapter of Meredith Alumnae held its first meeting of the fall on Thursday afternoon, October 30, at the home of Mrs. John M. Cheek, on Watts Street. The next meeting will be held Friday afternoon, December 12, at which time Dr. Brewer will be the speaker of the occasion.

CHARLOTTE CHAPTER HOLDS MEETING

The Charlotte Chapter of Meredith Alumnae held an interesting meeting Tuesday afternoon, October 28, at the home of Mrs. L. L. Hacinney on Providence Road, with Mrs. G. W. Phillips, president, presiding.

Mrs. D. E. Henderson presented a paper on Dr. M. Carey Thomas, educator. Mrs. Guy Carswell sang "Who Knows" accompanied on the piano by Mrs. G. W. Phillips.

Following the meeting Mrs. Harry Lee Carter, formerly Miss Dora Gene Pruette, was presented with a shower of glassware, after which the hostess served refreshments.—Charlotte Observer.
