

THREE MAJOR ORGANIZATIONS ENTERTAIN STUDENTS AND FACULTY AT RECEPTION

On Saturday, September 22, at 8:00 p.m. the three major organizations on the campus entertained the students and faculty at a formal reception in the blue parlor, honoring the new freshmen and transfers.

Guests were greeted by Arlene Foster, college marshal, and presented to the receiving line which was made up of Nancy Harris, president of the Student Government Association; Dr. Carlyle Campbell, president of Meredith College; Elizabeth Shelton, president of the Baptist Student Union; Dr. J. E. Burke, new dean of Meredith; Mrs. Burke; Mary G. Turner, president of the Athletic Association; Miss Anna May Baker, dean of women; Ruth Vande Kieft, president of the Day Student Government; Flora Ann Lee, vice president of the Student Government Association; Dr. Lillian Parker Wallace, chairman of the Orientation Committee; Jane Watkins, president of the Phi Society; and Emily Laster, president of the Astro Society.

Refreshments, consisting of punch, small cakes, and salted nuts, were served as the guests entered the parlor which was decorated with fall flowers and candles. Jean Griffith, Evelyn Straughan, and Frances Thompson presided over the punch bowls.

Frosh and Transfers Take Part In Various Orientation Events

Last week every new student entering Meredith College participated in an orientation program to provide them with information and training.

Catalogue training, library instruction, psychological tests, and physical examinations were given to each new student; all freshmen were given an English placement test.
