Basketball season is here! Manager Gloria Mayer has the following announcements to make: In order to be allowed to participate in the tournament, a player must attend a minimum of five of the scheduled practices for her class. To those members of the championship team who shall have participated in two-thirds of the total number of quarters played by their team, a small charm basketball will be given. The tournament is scheduled for February 18-26. The following schedule of practices will be helpful to you in keeping up with your class practices.

The practices will be in the gym from 9:30-10:30 each night. Carolyn Knight reports that the Badminton Tournament will be played after examination.

EXAMS LOOM ON HORIZON

Do you have those post-Christmas blues? Have you a case of longing for "Home, Sweet Home"? Do you furtively study and read along for pages and pages and suddenly realize that you've not been studying? You've been merely cataloguing in your mind—sorting and shuffling the wonderfully superb holidays? Well, relax and put your mind and attention on pleasanter thoughts, mi'lady—exams are beating down upon us. Just around the corner and over the hill exams are jumping, skipping, and bouncing to hit us smack in the face. The time is practically here, and no matter how we glance hopelessly from side to side and backwards—"time marches on." So—dear ladies, shoulders back, chin up, eyes forward, and march—steadily, to the front.

STUDENT LEAGUE OF WOMEN VOTERS

The Student League of Women Voters held its monthly meeting on December 13, at 6:45 p.m., in the Game Room. Frances Elrod, vice president, presided in the absence of Anne Hood Hughes, president.

Following the business session was an informative discussion of the Student Legislature which met in the State Capital on November 29-30 and at which Meredith was represented by four delegates. They were Dorothy Loftin and Elsie Corbett of the IRC, and Frances Thompson and Dorothy Cox from the Student League. The latter two spoke of the governmental procedures and some of the bills presented by other schools.

COLTON ENGLISH CLUB

The Colton English Club held its monthly meeting Friday night, January 3, at 6:45 in the Browsing Room. Doris Harris presented a short review of the club's history. Mrs. Nora Binder Leitch, president of the club at the time Jones' second floor social room was made into the hard-worked-for Browsing Room, talked about the early work for the room and its being named for Dr. Julia H. Harris. Stella Lassiter, vice president, introduced Mr. Douglas Reynolds, who spoke on Art in the Renaissance.

This program was the fourth in a series of programs concerning the life, literature, and culture of the Elizabethan period.

MacDOWELL MUSIC CLUB

The MacDowell Music Club held its January meeting Wednesday, the 8th in the Auditorium at 8:00 p.m. After the business session the program was turned over to artists of the evening. Guests included Miss Rachel Rosenberger and George Bennette, violinists, and Lucille Sawyer and Mrs. Margaret Dawson, accompanists, who presented a lecture recital.

"I'll be fired for that fool story!"

The managing editor of the New York Herald took a day off on December 21, 1879. So this headline in his paper hit him without warning.

EDISON'S LIGHT—

IT MAKES A LIGHT, WITHOUT GAS OR FLAME!

The public promptly shouted "hoax!" Scientists called Edison crazy. And our shocked, angry editor expected to be fired.

But he wasn't. Eleven days later, Thomas Edison held a unique New Year's party in his laboratory at Menlo Park, New Jersey, and invited the world to see his "flameless light." Thousands came and were convinced.

Soon small companies were bringing the benefits of Edison's newfangled lamp to the people. Engineers and business men poured in their energy and time . . . risked their own savings . . . overcame all kinds of obstacles . . . broadened and improved the service.

Government didn't do the job. Individuals did. And in the process, they created jobs for many thousands of Americans, as well as a great new service for many millions more.

When Edison opened the first power-plant in 1882, electricity cost 25c a kilowatt-hour. This year, the 100th anniversary of the inventor's birth, the average price of household electricity across the country is only 3 1/3c per kilowatt-hour.

Thanks to Edison's imagination and enterprise—thanks to the courage and initiative of many men and women, working under the American business system—this country enjoys the most and best electric service in the world. And all our lives are richer, safer, more productive.
