The Zeno Martins Fete Campus Leaders

What did you do Wednesday night, September 24? You don't remember? Well, there are eleven girls from Meredith College who will remember that date as one on which they "had a wonderful time." These girls, who hold the major offices on the campus, had dinner with the Zeno Martins—Mrs. Martin, Mr. Martin, and Zee.

The fun began when all of us dashed through the rain to pile into two cars. Mrs. Martin drove six of the girls—Frances Alexander, Editor of the Acorn, Gloria Mayer, President of B.S.U., Virginia Campbell, Editor of the Oak Leaves, Harriet Neese, President of A. A., Mary Beth Thomas, President of Senior Class, and Ella Mae Shirley, President of Junior Class. Mr. Martin and Zee (who wouldn't leave Lois Astro until Harriet played chess with him) followed with Margaret Moore, Editor of the Twig, Lib Jones, President of the Sophomore Class, Fran Thompson, President of S.G., Lois (Astro) Harmon, President of Astros, and Louvene Jordan, President of the Phi's. We sat in the living room and den listening to Strauss waltzes (Don't ask me which ones) until "dinner was served." That dinner defies description — it was simply perfection — with hot rolls and butter!!!

The conversations included a

BSU Entertains At Family Frolics

On Tuesday night, September 16, the B.S.U. entertained the new students with a Family Frolics picnic supper at the chimney. For the night the council and the new students all forgot their own names and became loyal members of such clans as the Quattlebaums, Skinflints, Byrdsongs, Frizzlewaters, and Barebones. The new families began during supper by proving that they all had huge appetites. After supper each family participated in a nursery song contest; the Skinflints were acknowledged the best singers. The schickelfritz baby proved herself to be the healthiest baby by finishing her Coca-Cola "baby bottle" first, amid the yells and cheers of the enthusiastic families. The Skinflints again walked off with honors as Baby Skinflints, dressed in crepe paper bonnet and gown, was judged the cutest baby.

Finally, the B.S.U. "family" and their "mama," Miss Billie Ruth Currin were introduced. The council then sang "Sweet William Died," which they dedicated to Miss Currin.

Following this song, the night's program was closed with a short Family Altar.

AFTER-DINNER COFFEE HONORS TRANSFERS

On Thursday night, September 25, the Junior class gave an after-dinner coffee in honor of the transfer students in the blue parlor. Ella Mae Shirley, Junior Class president, and Maxine Bissette, vice president, poured coffee at each end of the table. Marianna Worth, Betty Jo Pitman, Barbara Francis, Sue Jarvis, Mag Clinard, Edith Cooper, and Mary Frances Carpenter assisted in serving. Specially-invited guests beside transfers were Dr. and Mrs. Carlyle Campbell, Dr. and Mrs. Charles Burts, Miss Anna May Baker, Miss Lillian Grant, and Miss Mary Yarbrough, class sponsor.

wide range — Harmon's two nights in jail, Addie Elliotts loss of Byrd's ring and its recovery, and items about Rush Week, dates for annual pictures, and Palio. One of the "highlights" (the light was blinding as well as high) of the evening was having our pictures made. Dr. Cooper came by to make the picture and assured us that no one would ever suspect how cramped we were or on what books Harriet and "Speedy" Alexander sat — that is, no one would suspect if we'd all smile. Soon after the picture was made we had to return to Meredith, but we brought with us the memory of a wonderful night of food, fun and fellowship. E.M.S.
