ate of Campbell College, is a stenographer in the office of the Dean and Registrar.

Dr. Margaret P. Gregory has come to Meredith as a part-time instructor in biology. Dr. Gregory received her Ph.D. at the University of Virginia and was a member of the teaching staff in the department of biology there.

In our history department as Assistant Professor is Miss Sara Lemmon of Marietta, Georgia. Miss Lemmon received her B.S. degree at State Teachers College, Harrisburg, Virginia, and her A.M. degree from Columbia University. She has taught in high schools and has been an associate professor of history in La Grange College.

Miss Lucy Ann Neblett of Havana, Cuba, is Assistant Professor of Modern Languages. Miss Neblett was born of Missionary parents in Cuba. She received her A.B. degree at the University of Texas and did graduate work at the University of Mexico. At the University of California she obtained her A.M. degree. Miss Neblett has been an instructor in modern languages at the University of Chattanooga, Stetson University, Brenau College, and Whitworth College.

Dr. Suzanne H. Freund, who was born in Berlin, Germany, is now an Instructor in Modern Languages. Dr. Freund attended the University of Heidelberg, where she received her Ph.D.

degree. She taught in Germany, at St. Anne's School, Charlottesville, Virginia, and at Campbell College.

Miss Grace Rollings, also Instructor in Modern Languages, attended Winthrop College and Duke University where she received her A.B. and A.M. degrees, respectively. Miss Rollings has also studied at the Sorbonne and has spent a summer in Mexico.

Mr. David L. Wilmot has come to Meredith as Assistant Professor of Music. Mr. Wilmot received his B.S. degree from the University of Miami and his A.M. degree from Teachers College, Columbia University. He has taught in schools in Ohio and New York and has spent three years in military service.

Miss Cynthia Wells received B.S. and M.S. degrees from the Juillard School of Music. She has done concert work and was a teacher of music in Peekskill, N. Y.

Mrs. Dot Towler Dugger, who received from the University of Georgia, a B.S. degree in physical education, comes to Meredith as an Assistant in Physical Education. She has taught in high schools in Monroe, Georgia, and at Bessie Tift College.

Dr. Clyde N. Parker is now Professor of Sociology and Economics at Meredith. Dr. Parker received his A.B. and A.M. degrees in sociology at the University of Richmond, a Th.M. degree at the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary, and also from the University of Richmond his Ph.D., S.B.T.S., and D.D. degrees. For the past fifteen years, Dr. Parker has been pastor of Second Baptist Church in Petersburg, Virginia. As a member of the interracial commission, social service commission, board of missions and education, and president of the Baptist General Association central committee, Dr. Parker has been an active leader in the State of Virginia.

BETTY DAVIS

In each issue of the TWIG will be featured "The fashion queen of the week," who is chosen by the TWIG staff. This week Betty Davis posed for the TWIG photographer, Dr. Harry E. Cooper.

Standing between the archways of Christ Church, Betty, a senior, presents a striking contrast of glamour and sweet sophistication. Her dress, an Emily Wilkins original, is of dark brown crepe fashioned with tight-fitting bodice extending into a full flounce around the hips, and straight skirt split on either side at the hem line. Her hat is of brown stitched taffeta; shoes, bag, and gloves of brown suede. Across her arm she carries a coat of casual tan, finger-tip length, which is cut with circular back and full sleeves. Her necklace, a family heirloom of old gold, completes the ensemble.

MADMOISELLE OFFERS PLACE ON COLLEGE BOARD

Are you teeming with ideas? Would you like to see them in a magazine? Apply for membership in Mademoiselle's College Board. Yes, we want members with fashion talent, of course. But since we're a well-rounded magazine, we want a well-rounded College Board—and that means not only girls who are passionately interested in psych or science, sociology or anthropology, drama or child care. In short, girls who have passionate interests. (That means members have to keep grades up to scratch, campus activities above par, bright futures on their minds.) College Board members fulfill three MLE assignments throughout the school year. The twenty best become Guest Editors, work in MLE's New York offices for the month of June, get a chance to contribute to a professional magazine, earn and learn! In addition, if you become a guest editor, you have a chance of being picked as a delegate to Mademoiselle's Annual College Forum, at which college girls across the country discuss current social problems (this past year, Soviet - American relations).

You will attend Mademoiselle's Career Conference, sponsored by our Jobs and Future Department to help you find your right vocational niche. You'll have the privilege of taking aptitude and interest tests, of interviewing top names in your field, of getting a personal appraisal of MLE's editors. In short, just ten months from now you'll have a chance to take a brief plunge into that bright future.

Here's all you have to do to

FRESHMEN JOIN TWIG STAFF

Two members of this year's Freshman Class, Marjorie Joyner and Nancy Walker, have joined the TWIG staff as reporters. Both Marjorie and Nancy have had a great deal of experience on the staffs of their high school newspapers.

Any other freshmen who are interested in working on the TWIG staff this year are asked to contact the editor.

become a College Board Member and compete for a place as Guest Editor. You must:

1. Be an undergraduate attending an accredited college or junior college.
2. Be available to work during the whole month of June 1948, in our New York offices, helping put out the August College issue. (You earn while you learn, and MLE also pays railroad fares to and from New York.)
3. Submit a trial report, consisting of approximately two typewritten, double-spaced pages on any new phase of campus life: an academic course, fashion, fad, activity, organization or trend.
4. Send a snapshot of yourself, with complete data on college and home addresses, class year, college major and minor, other interests and activities and any paid or volunteer jobs you have held.
5. Send your trial report, snapshot and personal data to: The College Board Editor, MLE, 122 East 42 Street, New York 17, New York.
6. Applications must be post-marked no later than midnight, November 1, 1947.
