

Today's Fashion Queen

Snow Queen or May Queen? No matter which, Mary Dale Fales is just as beautiful . . . this time in a pair of soft tan wool gabardine jodphurs designed with long smooth lines . . . a fitted sweater of tan with contrasting strip of blue across the front . . . a loosely woven fascinator in a pale blue falling around her shoulders . . . a pair of brown leather knee boots wool lined for cold weather . . . an outfit made for ice and snow, and the charm of a girl in a winter wonder land.

Russia. He studied under Leschetizky, great for his "love for tone and respect for the individuality of the student."

He came to America in 1924 for the first time, and is now living in Connecticut. He is tall and very slender, with a sensitive face, and long and expressive hands. Quoting Dr. Lillian P. Wallace, "Personally, Brailowsky's outstanding characteristic, is his completely lacking in arrogance about his performances."

On April 16, the sixth and last Civic Music Concert of this season will be presented. Appearing on this program will be the Minneapolis Symphony Orchestra, Dimitri Metropolis, conducting.

Sports of the Day

By B. J. JOHNSON

Judging from the two basketball games that have been played, it appears that the Freshmen-Senior meet is the one to look forward to. Of the two games played, the Seniors defeated the Juniors, 40-21, and the Freshmen "vamped" the Sophomores 34-7. High scorers for the Senior winning team were "Lefty" Pugh and Mary Frances Craig, and for the Freshmen, Frances Nichols, Catherine Carpenter, and B. J. Shuler. The results of the other tournament games will be reported in the next issue of THE TWIG.

Several players who left last Friday night, Feb. 20, played basket-ball at the State Play Day in Winston-Salem. Those who went are "Lefty" Pugh, Harriet Neese, Barbara Swan-Hodges, Cat Carpenter, Peggy Thornton.

Miss Cunningham reports that the seventeen girls in her senior life saving course are making rapid progress. It is too late for others to get in their required practices now.
