Who could forget the dizzy doings of Lois Harmon and Fran Thompson? Here they are all decked out for their rag doll dance as "Raggedy Ann" and "Andy."

Palio was held on a cold day in November this year, but President Fran Thompson was happy as she reigned over festivities. Her pages are Meredith Liles, Lois Harmon, Anne Wallis, and Cathe Wishart.

SENIORS

All dressed up for the Jr.-Sr. is Barbara Johnson and her escort, David Parnell. "Bobbie" was chosen "Cutest" by the Senior Class.

Sarah and Susan Fleming made a hit for they were chosen "Friendliest" by class members. Susan was Vice President of the Senior Class.

Seen above is "Lefty" Pugh and her escort for the Jr.-Sr., A. B. Barefoot. "Lefty" was dubbed "Most Athletic" by her class.

Jean Bradley, seated at the easel will long be remembered for the art work she did while on the TWIG staff. Jean was named "Most Original" by the class.

Mary Beth Thomas, better known as "Tommie," was President of the Senior Class this year. When superlatives were chosen, Mary Beth was named the "Most Versatile."

Above is Doris Harris, President of the Day Students. Doris was also elected by the Senior Class as the "Best All-Round Town Student."
