

Sports of the Day

By CATHERINE CARPENTER

Tennis fans of Raleigh had a thrill on May 6 when Alice Marble, popular tennis star, visited St. Mary's College to give a tennis exhibition. Lucky were the three St. Mary's girls who learned, under Miss Marble's expert hand, the three basic tennis strokes. The crowd also witnessed a match between Miss Marble and Bill Weathers, Raleigh and Wake County Men's Singles Champion. Bill won the first game, giving the crowd a thrill, but Miss Marble rallied and won two out of three games. However, quoting a spectator from Meredith, "I was rather disappointed with the performance as a whole. Perhaps tennis' first lady has slipped."

Would you like to know what we had to eat at the A.A. breakfast? Here is the menu: Fruit Juice, Fried Ham, Pecan Rolls with Butter! Milk and Coffee. And plenty of it! You know how much we like to eat. Yum!

The Varsity Softball Team, as recently announced, includes Jane Middleton, Marty Davis, Roxy Bonville, Fran Ricks,

Ann Critcher, Cat Carpenter, Faye Nichols, Lela Butts, Hope Hodges, and Marianna Morris. The softball championship tournament ended with the freshman-senior team in the victor's chair.

What kind of tribute is it to a person to write a few lines about her in a newspaper column? Some would say, "Not so good," and I would be inclined to agree. But Harriet will understand when we tell her that all the printed words in the world couldn't express our deep love for her. Yes, I am speaking of Harriet Neese, President of the Athletic Association. In a few days she will don cap and gown and march down the aisle to receive her diploma. Then in a few days she will walk down another aisle to get a—husband! But we won't lose her when she takes the fatal step, because her influence on the campus will be felt for years to come. To you, Harriet, we say thanks for being such a wonderful leader and the best of everything to you and Jason.

BSU SPONSORS SENIOR SUNDAY

On May 16 the B.S.U. sponsored a special Senior Sunday, honoring the seniors at Sunday School and a tea at the Hut Sunday afternoon from four o'clock until five-thirty. Senior Sunday is an annual occasion, at which time all Seniors are especially urged to attend Sunday school and church. This year the informal tea, to which the seniors and their dates were invited, was an added feature of Senior Sunday. Miss Billie Ruth Currin, Judy Powers, Beth Boggs, Betty Hefner, Janie Nance, Marjorie Wilson, Betsy Ann Morgan, and Rita Britt welcomed the guests. Kathie Lewis, Betty Brooks, Betty Moore, Rosalyn Knott, Elaine Saunders, and Marguerite Leatherman served, while Harriet Littlejohn, Marjorie Trippe, and Virginia Bowman assisted. Charlotte Bowman, the B.S.U. Social Vice-president, was in charge of all the arrangements.

EXCHANGIN' AROUN'

The Obu Bison suggests that in studying for exams one first turns on the radio and asks six girls over for a bull session. Second, get some food in; like Graham crackers, peanut butter, sardines, and dill pickle sandwiches. The sardines will get rid of your roommate and all will be ready for studying. . . . Good luck!

Freshmen Entertain Big Sister Class

The Little Sisters dragged themselves out of bed at the crack of dawn in order that they could go by for their big sisters. Then everyone went to the chimney for a delightful breakfast. During the meal Kathy Deane entertained by singing "It's A Great Big World."

Janet Roberts was in charge of the breakfast. Serving on committees were the following: Food, Jean Taylor, Marilyn Ware, Ruth Griffin; Invitations, Rosalyn Varn, Sandra Moore, Helen Brunson; Entertainment, Lorena Kirkley.
