treasurer; and Virginia Jones, sergeant-at-arms. Marshals are Eunice Andrews, Chief Marshal; Betty Brooks, Senior Marshal; Hazel Williamson, Junior Marshal; and Daphne Bordeaux, Sophomore Marshal. Miss Lucy Ann Neblett is the faculty sponsor.

Led by President Shirley Powell, the Astros began pre-Rush Week activities with a picnic held at Allen's Pond for all new students. The entertainment was a humorous skit depicting a typical student's life at Meredith.

A collegiate party was held in Astro Hall Saturday, September 25, for new Meredith and State College students. The hall was decorated as a giant corner drug store, complete with juke box and soda fountain. Entertainment was furnished by barbershop quartets of Sigma Phi Epsilon boys from State, and Sigma Chis from Carolina. Cheerleading was led by Katherine Busbee and the Barbour twins from State. The Carolina Tumbling Team also performed.

Rush Week for the Astros began Monday night at dinner when the entire student body was entertained with special music by the Astro quartet: Shirley Powell, Phyllis Harrington, Nell Parker, and Margaret Smith. The program also included an original dance by the folk-dance group, and special music by Virginia Campbell.

Wednesday night at dinner the Astro entertainment featured Tom Wood from State College singing "When Astro Eyes Are Smiling," and Jean Olive singing "My Hero."

Friday, the last day of rushing for the Astro Society, was filled with surprises. From twelve until two o'clock an election campaign was held with the theme "Elect Senator Astro, The Peoples' Choice." A parade featured a convertible carrying Senator Astro as portrayed by Marjorie Joyner. Astro members followed carrying election banners. Freshmen were given rides around the campus and candy kisses from the Senator. A campaign speech made on the Johnson Hall steps ended the election activities.

Astro "Stars of Beauty" were featured during the dinner hour on Friday. The group was composed of Astros who have been members of the May Court. Taking part were Shirley Powell, Jeanne Dickens, Dot Childress, Virginia Bowman, Jane Lassiter, Gladys Greene, and Flo Moore. Jimmy Capps, star of the radio program, "Our Best To You," presented a program of poetry.

The week of rushing was brought to a close with the candlelight service held in the court Friday night. The word "Astro" was formed by members holding burning candles. The program ended with the forming of a star around the fountain.

SOPHS HAVE INFORMAL PARTY

An informal get-together was held for the Sophomore Class Tuesday night, September 14, in the Hut. The main purpose of the party was to meet the transfer students of the class. Honored guests for the evening were the transfers, Miss Grant, Miss Pratt, and Miss Lemmon, sponsor for the class.

A skit with the setting in Walgreen's Drug Store was given by Emma Lee Hough, Marjorie Joyner, Kathy Deane, Sandra Moore, Nancy Hefner, and Mary Jane Utley. They brought the class up to date on what had happened during the summer to all of the class members. After the skit, refreshments were served.

Plans for the party were made by Emma Lee Hough, president of the Sophomore Class. Working with her were Kathy Deane and Sandra Moore on the entertainment committee, and Peggy Benbow, Frances Anne Estridge, and Drake Morgan on the refreshment committee.

PRIZE BLUNDERS OF THE WEEK

Marianna Morris declares she found the following note on a senior's door:
"Phyllis, if you can champagne" two freshmen Friday night. Come by 1—Stringfield. We can get you a date."
Whew! What a job the English Department is in for!

And then there was the one about the poor freshman who said she'd already enrolled here before they told her about the rains. . . .

The best one of all, however is about the sweet young thing who was overheard talking about her Hall Protractor. . . . College is confusing, isn't it?
