LIFE OF A BOOKWORM

By CAROLYN COVINGTON

I am a bookworm. I'm starting to be one today. I just have to uphold the family reputation that we have brains like everybody else, and it seems that there's no other possible way of proving it other than living the life of a bookworm. Ah, 'tis a hard life to live just for a few little precious things called quality points!

My study schedule says to go to the library the minute I get out of class. Now that involves an argument between my schedstudy schedule say go straight to the library—not even taking the long route through the CONCERT TO BE PRESENTED Folk Dance Concert parlor to see who's lucky enough to have a date. I say, "Never do Curtis Institute. She has ap- To Be Given March 19 today what you can put off until peared with the Philadelphia tomorrow!" My study schedule orchestra, the New York City Says, "Are you kidding?" I never win an argument, so I end up in Opera Festival in Mexico City, the library with my glasses on and three times with the Dessoff given on March 19 in the college viewer. and all my books in my arms. Choirs in Carnegie Hall. Among (Well, I had to do something to her visits to colleges are appearlook the part!) I settle uncom- ances at Duke University and including American folk dances, experienced persons and they do fortably (next time I'll bring a the University of North Carolina. pillow) and open my notebook. On the first six pages, I find my assignments for tomorrow. All toire of oratorios, operatic roles, the organization is Frankie myself that some of these poor teachers were misinformed when during four and one half years in they learned that there are the Armed Forces of the United Workers earn it, 36 hours in every day.

details as to how much studying I've been doing today. Anyway, it's now 9:55 and to save insight, and absolute command Taxes take it, me, I can't see anything I've of phrase and style. done. Shucks I'll never be a success as a book worm. But wait I have an idea!

Results:

1 Thou shalt find thyself in visits. the library at all spare moments. 2 Thou shalt not look at the clock more than three times during one hour.

3 Thou shalt not look up from thy books even when men's vocies are heard and they are voices from N. C. State.

into being thirsty as an excuse to leave thy studies.

5 Thou shalt not try to hear every conversation that takes place at thy table. 6 Thou shalt not read the jokes from The Saturday Evening Post except at designated 7 Thou shalt love history books as best-sellers.

8 Thou shalt not say more than 10 words to any one person. 9 Thou shalt not draw a picture nor write the boy-friend's name and fraternity on any sheet of notebook paper.

10 Thou shalt be a bookworm,

P. S. I really am going to start being one next week!

Dependable

Dry Cleaning

Prompt Courteous

ule and me. I say go to the library by the Bee Hive. My auspices of the Raleigh Civic Music Association.

(Continued from page one)

and concert programs in five Ward. languages, used his bass baritone States to sing "The Lord's Spendthrifts burn it, Well, I'll not go into great Prayer" at Memorial Services. He is acclaimed for his sonorous Women spend it, and thrilling voice, a truly poetic Forgers fake it, Meredith College students are doubly fortunate in that Miss Troxel and Mr. Watson will be here on campus and available for Advice to the freshman on campus:

Gather good grades while you

The second year is tougher; 4 Thou shalt not talk thyself For this same prof that smiles

Tomorrow will be rougher.

That year is best which is the first. When student and prof are stranger; It's not until he knows the worst That you're in any danger.

PRACTICE DEMOCRACY! VOTE IN STUDENT ELECTIONS!

the Folk Dance Club will be genial smile—so does the interauditorium. A colorful program has been planned. The club is not give favorable impressions.

Mr. Watson, who brings to is audience an extension of the Physical Representation of the Phy > Bankers lend it, Dying leave it, Heirs receive it, Thrifty save it, Misers crave it, Robbers seize it, Rich increase it, Gamblers lose it. . . . I could use it.

Better Glasses Better Fitted

> Official Railroad Watch Inspector

JEFFRIES JEWELRY, Inc.

137 S. Salisbury Street

DIAL 8804

No More Guesswork in Home Permanent Waving

TIPS TO HELP IN SECURING JOBS

Bethlehem, Pa. (I.P.)—Easy manners and good grooming as well as technical ability and know-how play their part in helping a student land an attractive job in industry judging by nine factors for successfu interviews outlined by E. Robins Morgan, director of placement at Lehigh University, in a new booklet, Senior Placement Information. Here are Morgan's

"Before entering an interview know something about the size of the company, its financial standing, the location of its principal plants, its products and their uses.

"Be well groomed. Your clothes need not be expensive but they should be clean and otherwise presentable.

"Be cordial in greeting an interviewer. This is good business as well as good manners. You The annual spring concert of like a firm handshake and a "Be yourself. Affectations are of dances of many nationalities, readily discernible even to in-

"Sit comfortably erect in your

"Be at ease.

"Show your interest in the type of employment being offered.

"Let your speech be articulate. The interviewer has the right to know what you are saying.

"To be cocky is inexcusable. It is not business-like, it is not courteous, and it is not profitable.'

According to Morgan the three deciding factors in placement are character, ability and personality. "The value of good character needs explanation to those only who do not possess it. A college man's ability will be gauged by scholastic standing, participation in extra-curricula activities, and a knowledge of current events."

THEATRE

Starting March 2

The Snake Pit" With

March 6-12

OLIVIA de HAVILAND

"Enchantment"

DAVID NIVEN and TERESA WRIGHT

Starting March 13

"The Bribe" AVA GARDNER

The figure divine! That's you in your miracle working Half-Hi-A. Up-of course! It's a heavenly uplift. Daring-just a bit. It's a Half-Hi-A, you know. So comfortable, so wonderful in the smooth way it stays in place. It's the perfect bra for low cut dresses-for the important Empire silhouette . . . for you. White or black nylon satin. Sizes 32 to 38. $5.00.

Service

Dial 2-2071