

DANCERS IN THE BALLET RUSSE

Ballet Russe De Monte Carlo Will Appear in Civic Music Concert in Raleigh in February

The famous Ballet Russe de Monte Carlo will appear in Memorial Auditorium here in Raleigh on Friday night, February 10, under the auspices of the Civic Music Association in its current concert series.

Featuring such famous ballet dancers as Alexandra Danilova and Frederic Franklin, the Ballet Russe is now in its eleventh consecutive season. Sergei J. Denham is director of the Ballet.

In its last tour the Ballet visited seventy-five cities and forty colleges in the United States and Canada, playing to audiences in excess of three quarters of a million people. Basing its activities on the classical dance traditions, the Ballet troupe feels that the great success of its tours is an endorsement of the public for such classical traditions.

Incomplete Funds For Unified Budget Plan

The Unified Budget Plan, which was approved by both faculty and students of the college last fall, has not yet completed its drive for funds with which to put the plan into action. Three dollars was allotted to each student as his contribution, but so far only $606.50 of the required approximate total of $1,350 has been raised from the students.

Student members of the Unified Budget Committee included Elizabeth Jones, Carolyn Massey, Sally Massey, and Janet Tatum, while the faculty advisers are Dr. John Yarbrough, Dr. Ernest Canaday, and Mrs. Vera T. Marsh.

The budget which was approved is as follows:

Drives Included	Amts.
World Student Service Fund	$ 315
Cancer Drive	110
Red Cross	400
Cary Street Mission	75
March of Dimes	250
Special Contingencies	250
	$1,400

The Community Chest and Christmas seals are not included in this list, since they have already been taken care of, and since the Community Chest fund is to be collected as a separate drive.

All drives listed include student contributions and the amounts listed are average figures of contributions taken over a two year period.

Miss Caroline Taylor, pianist, was presented in concert by the MacDowell Music Club on January 10. This young artist, daughter of the Lieutenant-Governor of the state, has been featured several times with the North Carolina Symphony orchestra and with other ensembles.

After her concert, which included selections by Bach, Schumann, Debussy, and Chopin, a

Marsh stressed the fact that this year no special fund-raising organization would be set up at Meredith, but that the educational aspects of the drive would be emphasized by a chapel program, the distribution of posters, and the placing of the new Iron Lung Coin Collectors around the campus. Our chairman suggests that we remember "to keep marching mentally, physically, and financially with the March of Dimes."

reception was held in the Blue Parlor. There the guests were greeted by Bettie Compton, president of the campus Music Club.

Those serving as hostesses for the evening were Jean Olive, Dorothy Allen, Mary Faye White, Marian Winston, Elizabeth Zulalian, and Myra Rhodes. Marshals for the occasion were Margaret Swann, Jane Slate, Jean Miller, and Addie Elliott.

The organist of the Mormon Tabernacle in Salt Lake City, Alexander Schreiner, will be a guest recitalist at the University of North Carolina tonight.

On Monday and Tuesday, January 30 and 31, students studying music will be taking the usual semester exams in the music department.
