

Officers of the four major campus organizations have been chosen in recent spring elections on the campus. Above, seated, is Marie Edwards, newly-elected president of Student Government Association. Standing, from left to right, are Sally Massey, new president of the Athletic Association; Barbara Ballenger, new president of the day students; and Mary Evelyn Brown, president of the Baptist Student Union.

Spring Elections Continue As Major Campus Officers Are Elected

Major officers and editors of campus publications have already been chosen by the student body as spring elections went into the third week of voting. Next week the secretaries of major organizations will be nominated, to work with presidents already elected for next year.

Beginning in March the four major organizations' presidents were elected, with Marie Edwards being chosen as president of student government. For this office Rosalyn Poole was also nominated. Mary Evelyn Brown, who was nominated with Mary Ann Westbrook, was elected president of the Baptist Student Union, with Sally Massey being chosen as president of the Athletic Association. Jean Johnson was nominated also for this office.

Barbara Ballenger, named as president of the day students for next year, defeated Dorie Anne Atkins for the post.

In the following week the editors of the campus publications were elected, together with the president of the Little Theatre and the chief counsellor. Editor of the TWIG next year will be Jeanne Ramsey; of the Oak Leaves, Jane Slate; and of the Acorn, Julia Presson. Jean Joyner was also nominated for the Acorn, and Dot Miller for the TWIG.

Barbara Cox won over Ruth Ann Simmons for the post of president of the Little Theatre, while Anne Creech defeated Sue Fitzgerald for the office of chief counsellor.

Nominated for elections this week were for vice-president of student government, Rosalyn Poole and Dwan Swindell; for vice-president of the Athletic Association, Catherine James and Joyce Covington; and for vice-president of the day students, Daphne Stevenson and Charlotte Taylor.

BIOLOGY STUDENT

(Continued from page five)
Joanna is one of many Meredith students who are doing teaching in secondary schools in Raleigh this semester; in both elementary and secondary schools North Carolina will gain at least 97 new prospective teachers by June, when that number of seniors expect to finish requirements for A teaching certificates.

Last fall 31 students did their student teaching in various fields; this semester a total of 66 seniors are busily working out lesson plans and learning their students by name.

Betty Jo Smith and Jean Johnson were nominated for Phi president; for the Astros, Norma Fagan and Barney Schettler were chosen. Nominated for first vice-president of B.S.U. were Jean Dula and Janet Stallings; for second vice-president, Louise Stewart and Nancy Kistler; third vice-president, Betty Jo Welch and Mary Ann Westbrook.

STAR GAZINGS

The names of five girls have been submitted as possible candidates for the office of president of the Astroklub Society. They are: Norma Fagan, Dwan Swindell, Jane Luther, Mary Ann Westbrook, and Barney Schettler. Of this group, two will be selected by the nominating committee to be the final candidates. However, if a good possibility has been overlooked, she can be nominated by means of a special ballot signed by ten per cent of the Astros.

In this coming election of officers, it should be remembered that according to the constitution of our society, the president should be a member of the incoming senior class; the vice-president, a member of either the incoming senior or junior class; and the secretary and the treasurer, members of the incoming junior or sophomore class. The sergeant-at-arms should come from the rising sophomore class, and the marshals are taken one from each the incoming senior, junior, and sophomore classes, with the chief marshal coming from the rising senior class.

The Astros have recently elected a council to plan their activities and in general, to steer the society along. Freshmen members of this board are Charleen Swanzey, Pat Loftin, and Carolyn Little, Sophomore representatives include Sally Smith, Adele Buning, Ann Seagrove, and Pat Dula,

PHIDO SAYINGS

What does being a Phi mean to me? First of all, it means just what the motto says, "Plain living, and high thinking." It gives me the opportunity of getting to know girls whose purpose in life is the highest possible. It means opportunity for closer fellowship in work and play with some of the finest girls in the world.

It means that I am a part of a society whose sincere friendliness and helpfulness has helped many freshmen to adjust themselves in their new homes. It means that I have a chance to work with my friends in all the activities of the Phis during the year. It means that even though I'm a freshman, I am just as much a member as a senior, and I have the same opportunities and privileges as any other member. It means that next year I can make up beds during "Rush Week" and get up at six o'clock in the morning to sing with all my heart "P-H-I does everything."

Beth Morgan

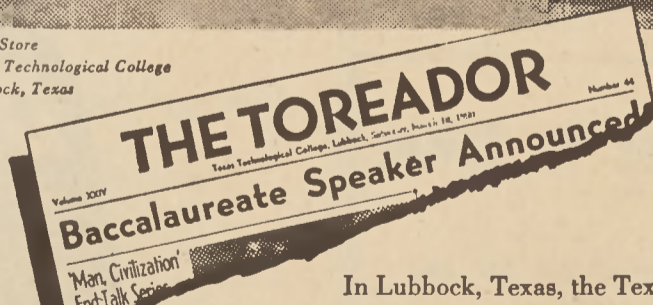

and from the junior class are Dwan Swindell, Barney Schettler, Norma Fagan, and Dot Thomas.

Day student members include Pat Eberhart, Barbara Daniel, Barbara Moore, and members of this board are Doril Williams, Carol Parker, Martha Sue Smith, Jane Luther, and Sonny Burnham, the present officers of the society.

Carolyn Little

Book Store
Texas Technological College
Lubbock, Texas

In Lubbock, Texas, the Texas Tech College Book Store is a favorite student gathering spot. In the Book Store—Coca-Cola is the favorite drink. With the college crowd at Texas Technological College, as with every crowd—Coke belongs.

5¢

Ask for it either way... both trade-marks mean the same thing.

BOTTLED UNDER AUTHORITY OF THE COCA-COLA COMPANY BY
The Capital Coca-Cola Bottling Co.

© 1951, The Coca-Cola Company

He: Where?
She: Roy's

He: Where!!
She: ROY'S

Weatherman's
Jewelers

1904 Hillsboro Street

PROMPT SERVICE
ON WATCH
AND
CLOCK REPAIR

PEARLS
RESTRINGING