

"Today's Woman" Is Chosen As Subject By Claire Hoggard Maddrey, Main Speaker For Annual Alumnae Reunion Here Next Weekend

Program Includes Informal Luncheon

"Today's Woman," an address by Mabel Claire Hoggard Maddrey of Ahoskie, will be a highlight of the program for the annual alumnae reunion on June 2, 1950. Mrs. Maddrey is the president of the Woman's Club of Ahoskie. Through this organization she has been active in the State Federation of Women's Clubs, for she has served as chairman of several departments of the state organization. During the past session of the North Carolina legislature she served as secretary of the Sir Walter Cabinet, a group composed of the wives of the state legislators.

Mrs. Maddrey has also been active in the work of the Women's Missionary Union and is the new state president of the W.M.U. Prior to being elected president of the W.M.U., Mrs. Maddrey served as State Mission Study Chairman and as State Vice-president as well as chairman of various state committees. After receiving her A.B. degree at Meredith, she attended Columbia University, where she was granted her M.A. degree. Mrs. Maddrey served as alumnae president from 1935 to 1938.

The alumnae will assemble in the college auditorium at 10:30 on Saturday, June 2, and the president, Mrs. Elizabeth J. Dotterer will preside. During this morning session the classes holding reunion this year will present gifts to the college. The classes holding reunion are the classes of 1910, 1911, 1912, 1913, 1926, 1929, 1930, 1931, 1932, 1941, and 1949.

The Granddaughters Club and the Folk Dance group will present a program which will be climaxed by Mrs. Maddrey's address.

Luncheon

Reunion classes will have special tables reserved for them in the college dining hall for a 1:00 luncheon. Jane Watkins Sullivan, class of 1946, of Durham, will serve as toastmaster for the luncheon. Since her graduation, Miss Sullivan has served as loyalty fund chairman of her class for two years and as chairman of the hospitality committee in 1938, and as president of the Durham chapter of the Alumnae Association.

Chairman of the committee for planning the reunion is Marguerite Mason Wilkins, class of 1930, of Durham. Mrs. Lois Morgan Overby, class of 1935, of Smithfield, will be in charge of the plans for the luncheon and Mrs. Dorothy Singleton Perry, class of 1938, of Raleigh, will be in the rotunda to welcome the returning Meredith girls.

B.S.U. Holds Annual Campus-wide Meet

The annual campus-wide B.S.U. meeting was held in the Hut on May 9, at 7 p.m. Betty Jo Welch, program chairman, presided.

Summer conferences were discussed to stimulate interest in attending these summer meetings. Mr. Jimmy Ray showed slides of Ridgecrest and Penina Bowden gave some of the highlights of last year's conference.

This year, Meredith and Wake Forest will share the same cottages, Rest Haven and Shady Nook. Facilities will be available for preparing breakfast in the cabins. The opening session begins at 7:00 p.m. Wednesday, June 6, and will close at noon the following Wednesday, June 13.

Some of this year's speakers and leaders include Theodore F. Adams, Donald F. Ackland, Claude U. Broach, Wayne Oates Samuel A. Maddox, Ralph T. Overman, Culbert G. Rutenber, Frank Stagg, and Harold W. Tribble. All students are urged

Curtain Up

By Betsy Cannady

As the year comes to a close, the Little Theatre would like to give you an idea of some of the things that have been done that will be of permanent value to the school.

We have spent $453.79 for building material. These materials have been used to make a set and other props that can be used by other groups for years to come. We also believe that Little Theatre has created an interest among the students that has been lacking in the past. Our plays this year were attended by more students than those in earlier years. We hope that more and more students will join us in our work next year.

Next year's officers have already been elected. They are Ellen Westmoreland, vice-president; Elinor (better known as "Potsy") Averre, secretary; and Betsy Cannady, treasurer. These officers with the help of the president, Barbara Cox, the sponsor, Miss Mayes, and all the members, have great plans for the coming year.

The greatest news of the year is about our outgoing president. Perhaps all of you have noticed a gleam in her eyes; well, it's not just because of graduation. Micky Bowen has a contract to work with "The Lost Colony" this summer. Just look what happens to some of the lucky girls of Meredith Little Theatre. Micky, all of us will be thinking of you in your work this summer and will be coming down to Manteo to see you.

All of you remember, (we hope) our fall production of "Goodbye, My Fancy." Well, last week the Ambassador Theatre presented the picture, "Goodbye, My Fancy." After seeing the movie we are very proud of our production because it compared favorably with the movie. Most of us sat through the picture and repeated our

Politics, Hot Dogs Mix At Chimney

"Politics has been mixed with many things before, but this is the first time it has been mixed with hot dogs," said Jeanne Ramsey in her introduction to the program given by four history methods students at the annual picnic of the International Relations Club and the Student League of Women Voters held at the Chimney on May 15.

Jeanne Ramsey, Ruth Ann Simmons, Marie Edwards, and Martha Holland, members of Dr. Wallace's method's class, presented in a panel discussion first-hand information concerning the organization of, and participation in, North Carolina politics.

Since these students, for a class project, had investigated into the very core of our state government's mechanics and had been so successful in their findings, they wanted to share their new knowledge with other students who would be interested.

Members of the two organizations who attended enjoyed hot dogs, potato chips, and cokes with a desert, furnished by Dr. Keith, sponsor of the Stuednt League, and Dr. Wallace, sponsor of the International Relations Club.
