

Angels and Salem Tie in Playday

Meredith tied with the hostess college, Salem, in the basketball playday held there recently. Points were awarded in the following manner: 3 points for a winning game; 2 points for a tie and 1 point for each loss. Thus, with three wins and one loss each of the two top teams came out with ten points.

In the Guilford-Meredith game, Meredith led all the way with a 16-10 score at half-time and a lead of 31-16 at the end of the game.

During the afternoon schedule Meredith defeated Greensboro College by a score of 23-7. Salem College held Meredith to 12 points during the second game of the afternoon but could not move her own points beyond 6, making a final score of 12-6.

In an exciting game that was tied at 12-12 at the end of the half, Meredith lost to Woman's College 19-16, in the final game of the day.

Those girls making the trip included Ruth Jeanne Allen, Joyce Bailey, Bess Francis, and Bonny Morgan, guards, and Jean Dula, Sue Fitzgerald, Mary Ruth Godfrey, Edna Owen and Jean Pace, forwards.

BARBARA BONE

(Continued from page one)

blue parlor immediately following the recital.

While attending Meredith College, Miss Bone has been a freshman counsellor, the B. S. U. music chairman, president of the junior class, vice-president of Sigma Alpha Iota, president of the Granddaughter's Club, and a member of both the Meredith College chorus and the First Baptist Church choir.

Following graduation in June, she plans to teach public school music.

Included on her program will be: "Starmello" by Cemara; "Fiocea La Neve" by Cemara; "Romanza" from "Cavalleria Rusticana" by Mascagni; "L'Invitation au Voyage" by Duparc; "L'Havu Exquise" by Hahn; "Fantochez" by Debussy; "Sure on this Shining Night" by Bar-

The administration and the art department were represented in the student-faculty basketball game. While Mrs. Helen Adams shoots for a goal, Miss Margaret Schwartz and Miss Marian Davis participate in the practice for an anticipated win over the students. Their hopes were realized in the 38-32 defeat of the students on March 22.

Faculty Upsets Students in Annual Contest

By RUTH ANN SIMMONS

In an hilarious upset on March 22, the faculty defeated the students in the annual faculty-student basketball game by a score of 38-32. With the aid of seven players and a 15-point handicap, the faculty played a fine game.

Players for the faculty were Mrs. Helen Adams, Mrs. Ruth Nicholson, Miss Margaret Schwartz, Miss Marion Davis, Miss Ruth Woodman, Miss Doris Peterson and Jean Pace.

For the students, seventeen players turned out for the four classes. All those wishing to play had their chance, for the teams were changed frequently.

Those who saw the game reported such a fine time that we hope next year's game can be planned in much the same way and that the Meredith family will turn out en masse.

ber; "A Nun Takes the Veil" by Barber; "The Secrets of Old" by Barber; "Nocturne" by Barber; "Die Sate Stradt" from the opera "Mariettas Lied Zur Laute"; "Over the Steppe" by Gretchanianoff; "My Johann" by Grieg; "By a Lonely Forest Pathway" by Griffes; and "Midsummer" by Worth.

PHILLIP'S BEAUTY SALON

Across from Post Office
Over Mayo's Clothing Store
6 East Martin Street

PHONE 9982

Special for Meredith Students and Faculty Only

20% Discount on all Permanent Waves

Various Problems Plague the Life of a Hall Proctor

By BOBBIE ADDY

Lucy, Gert, Diane, Pat, Flora, Ann, George. Do these names look familiar to you? Well, there are at least eleven girls on the campus who are well acquainted with these names—they are the hall proctors, and the names represent the girls who make life more "interesting" for the proctors.

First, there's Lucy. She's the gal who sometimes answers the phone. These times usually occur during study hour or quiet hour on Sunday when poor Lucy is just too tired to walk down the hall to get the recipient of the call. There's nothing wrong with Lucy's lung power though, and she lets out a yell which drowns out any thought which may be developing the brains of the girls who are studying.

Lucy's roommate is Gert, a very gay girl. She, too, comes to life during study hour when she suddenly decides to practice her dancing in the hall or to pick out a few tunes on her uke. Ah, yes, she's got talent—no one can disrupt the tranquility of the hall as quickly as Gert can.

Diane lives at the other end of the hall. Poor kid loses out on a good many things, because there are times when she becomes completely deaf. This usually occurs when "Prock" calls light bell; the subsequent knocks on the door leave Diane quite unmoved. Maybe she's too engrossed in finishing her homework for the next day. Diane also has her deaf spells when her turn to answer the phone arrives.

Pat is the party girl of the hall. Any occasion at all—birthday, engagement, completion of a test, term paper, —is the signal for Pat to go to work. Everyone knows that a party gets better as the night goes on, and Pat's really on the ball there—her parties never start till 11:00 p.m. or 11:30 p.m.! Mustn't waste your time sleeping, you know.

Anything in your room that isn't familiar? Don't worry, it

Freshmen Win Intramural Tournament

The basketball intramural tournament has been completed, leaving the freshmen the winning class.

Three games were played in all during the tournament. In the first game the freshmen led the juniors all the way to a final score of 42-9.

The second game turned out to be quite exciting with the underdog seniors leading at the half and giving in to a 25-25 tie in the third quarter. The sophomores came through with that extra punch and the final tally showed 36-27 in their favor.

The final game was the play-off game between the freshman and sophomore teams to decide the championship. The winning score was 36-31 in favor of the freshmen.

Serving as captains for the four teams during the tournament were Sally Massey, senior; Jean Dula, junior; Bonny Morgan, sophomore; and Ann Jones, freshman.

Officiating for the tournament were Mrs. Helen Adams, Mrs. Ruth Nicholson, Kitten James and Bess Francis.

BASKETBALL TEAM DEFEATS DUKE

On March 14, the Meredith basketball team sojourned to the Duke gymnasium and proceeded to trounce the Devilettes thoroughly with a 45-22 victory.

Sue Fitzgerald, serving as captain, led the way with 15 points to her credit as high scorer. Others making the trip were Mary Ruth Godfrey, Alstine Salter, Ann Lovell, Jean Pace, and Bess Frances, forwards; Ann Jones, Ruth Jean Allen, Joyce Bailey and Nancy Hall, guards.

probably belongs to Flora. She'll be down to get her things when she needs them. Trouble is, she never needs them until it is almost midnight; then Flora can be heard shuffling down the hall, squeaking doors, and giving other clues as to her whereabouts while she collects her belongings. Flora has another bad habit; she forgets to tell "Prock" when she expects an important phone call after light bell. As a result, poor "Prock" is usually mowed down by Flora dashing

(Continued on page six)

Let NEIMAN'S
show you

NEIMAN'S

Jewelers Silversmiths

109 Fayetteville Street

Edwards & Broughton
Company

ESTABLISHED 1871

Printers : Lithographers
Binders : Engravers
Office Supplies

RALEIGH, N. C.

Printers of The Twig for Years

Raleigh Bottling Plant