

EMPHASIS WEEK

(Continued from page one)
of course, be designed with the student body as a whole in mind. Dr. Pruden will speak each morning, and students will participate. Pause for Power will feature devotional thought of such speakers as Mr. Robert Wendt, Dr. Mary Yarbrough, Mrs. Roger Crook, and Mrs. Clifford Beck. Dr. Pruden will again speak at the evening worship services. The chorus and other students will also take part in these services. Discussion periods will be held each night after the evening worship service to discuss the evening message and other current topics. Leaders for these discussions will be Reverend James W. Ray, Reverend Douglas Aldrich, Reverend Roberts Lasater, Reverend James Overton, Mrs. Ralph McLain, and Mrs. Foy J. Farmer.

On Monday, Tuesday, and Thursday afternoons from 4:30 until 5:30 there will be informal teas for the students and Dr. Pruden. On Wednesday afternoon at the same hour the faculty will give a tea for Dr. Pruden. It is hoped that there will be a banquet for the student body on Monday night, but plans are not yet complete on this item.

Committees Named

Committee chairmen have chosen their committees and begun working on their part in Emphasis Week. The Worship Committee, headed by Betty Jo Welch and advised by Dr. Ralph McLain, is composed of Nancy Doherty, Effie Sneed, Pat Wheeler, Betty Ann Highsmith, Shelley Millican, and Martha Hawkins.

The Program Committee has as its chairman, Gordie Maxwell, its faculty advisor, Dr. Roger Crook, and Sylvia Deans, Dot Prickett, Ann Bruton, Doris Knott, Ophelia McLean, Betty Lou Paschall, and Mary Ruth Wilcox.

On the Publicity Committee are Doris Perry, chairman, Miss Mary Hatley, advisor, and Ruth Cole, Ann Seagrove, Mary Ann Candler, Mary Ann Casey, Nancy Kistler, Pete Hampton, Bernie Limer, and Ellen Moore. Jackie Norris, chairman of the Discussion Committee, has working with her Jean Dula, Betty Lou Olive, Trudy Fitzgerald, Nancy Drake, Mary Jo

By BETTY MILLER

Exams are over now and we can all relax again, if you can call practicing relaxing. Were you satisfied with your grades? Maybe you made the same resolutions I did, to practice with more concentration.

Jean Wrenn Andrews has been monopolizing the organ lately. Her recital is on February 25.

Jerome Hines really raised a lot of dissension among people. What sort of impression did he Isaacs, and B. A. Aldrich. Dr. Ethel Tilley will advise this group.

The Music Committee will be headed by Mary Bryan Reid and Miss Beatrice Donley. Other members of this committee are Margie Barnes, Phoebe Barnhardt, Maxine Grant, Estelle Waller, Carolyn Brady, and Hortense Wiggs.

On the Arrangements Committee are Patty Melvin, chairman, Jeanette Overby, Martha Baird, Eva Townsend, Barbara Southwork, Velma Smithwick, and Marjorie Stow. Mrs. Mayes will work with this committee.

The Entertainment Committee is composed of Lyn Belton, chairman, Miss Forrestine Whitaker, advisor, and Jane Campbell and June Vann.

Mary Ann Thompson, Dottie Garrett, Shirley McLean, Alice Spell, and Joanne Brown are serving on the Hospitality Committee with Anne Parr as their chairman. Miss Margaret Schwartz is their advisor.

The Books and Literature Committee is headed by Phyllis Tribble and Miss Hazel Baity, librarian. Betty Aldred, Blanche Hodge, Dot White, Nobuko Ka-make on you? Or were you so overcome by his handsomeness that you forgot to listen?

The North Carolina Symphony was good, wasn't it? They played selections to please everyone. Some people thought the program was too frivolous, but others, whose opinions I value, have verified my opinion that it was a well-planned program.

Miss Phyllis Weyer and Mr. Stuart Pratt gave a joint piano-violin recital February 13. Everyone agrees that the recital was very enjoyable.

wano, and Barbara Webb are also working on this committee.

Julia Hough, chairman of the Continuation Committee, has working with her Zoe Harmon, Doris Jean McLamb, Betsy Brooks McGee, and Sandra Peterson.

Miss Louise Fleming, Miriam Knight, Mary Ann Kiser, and Sarah Pate will help Patsy Bland, chairman of the Conferences Committee.

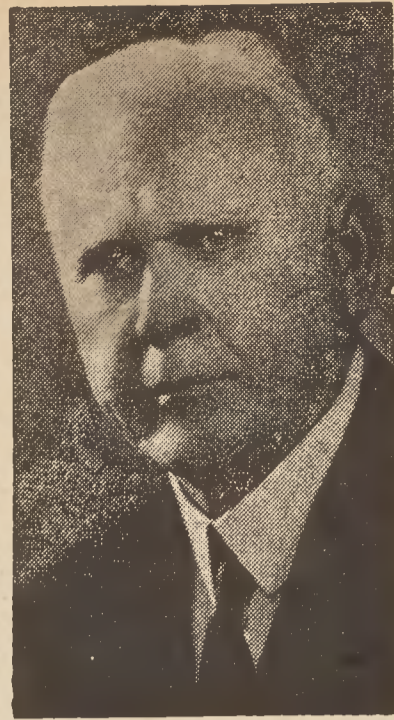

The treasurer for Religious Emphasis Week is Doris Macmillan. Assisting her will be Sarah Coxe and Mr. Wendt.

PROBLEMS

(Continued from page five)

began. That little house was too small to hold my formidable Shakespeare book and my husband's thesis. And I was always coming to school with his calculus book, which looked exactly like my philosophy book. Once I handed in one of his math problems to Dr. Harris along with my paper describing Dr. Johnson's cat. I remember memorizing my Shakespeare lines with my book propped up on the sink. I went around muttering "To be or not to be" and "one cup of sugar and one tablespoon of butter" for weeks. Lady Macbeth was always there too, insisting every night on depositing her small bulk on the Shakespeare book in my lap.

We agreed we'd spent our last days in our "cute" little honeymoon house, so we moved to the

George W. Truett

Broadman Publishes Truett Biography

The Broadman Press of Nashville has announced publication on Feb. 15 of a new edition of George W. Truett: A Biography, by Powhatan W. James.

This biography is as human as it is authoritative. Mr. James was Truett's son-in-law, and knew him intimately. Also he student apartments in Vetville.

We've got most of our problems licked now except for a puffing hot-water heater, a new baby overhead, and a trumpet player who blasts away until midnight because of the cocker spaniel below who barks when I play the piano.

EIGHT RECEIVE DEGREES

(Continued from page one)

er and Frances Carlton. Frances Altman received her degree in English, while Christine Kochhar and Carolyn Getzman received theirs in business and sociology, respectively. Carolyn plans to attend graduate school.

could appraise Truett's personality, his methods, and his ministry as a whole from the viewpoint of another minister. He knew the forces behind the power of Dr. Truett's personality and preaching and he adds the flavor of interest as he tells the gripping story of Truett's life.

For those who knew George W. Truett, the biography has great value because it puts into words the things they sensed but perhaps could not articulate. For those who did not know him, it is a perfect avenue of approach to the life and spirit of the man whose profound love and knowledge of God and humanity touched the lives of millions.

—David A. Cheavens

Edwards & Broughton Company

Established 1871

Printers : Lithographers
Binders : Engravers
Office Supplies

RALEIGH, N. C.

Printers of The Twig for Years

MAN-MUR SHOE SHOP

TROY D. SMITH, Owner

INVISIBLE SHOE REPAIRING

Work Done While You Wait

AGENTS FOR CAROLINA CLEANERS

Phone 7330

2516 Hillsboro St.

"When You Get a Good Thing, Remember Where You Got It"

VISIT THE GRIDDLE

For Our HAMBURGER ROYAL — or — DELICIOUS WAFFLES
Open 24 Hours
(Next to Wertz)

Stop in at

ARNOLD'S REXALL DRUGS

3025 Hillsboro St.

Phillip's Beauty Salon

Hair Stylist
Permanent Waving

PHONE 9982
6 East Martin Street
Over Mayo's Raleigh, N. C.

20% DISCOUNT ON ALL PERMANENT WAVES To Meredith Students and Faculty

Campus capers call for Coke

The accent's on hi-jinks at the Winter Carnival and a happy part of the occasion is refreshment... with delicious ice-cold Coca-Cola.

BOTTLED UNDER AUTHORITY OF THE COCA-COLA COMPANY BY THE CAPITAL COCA-COLA BOTTLING CO.

● Let Miriam's help you with your wedding plans. Visit their Shops and watch for their new location in Cameron Village.