

MISS HELEN WALKER WEDS JOHN HARRIS

With her father, the Rev. Frederick Guy Walker, officiating, Miss Helen Walker became the bride of John Phillip Harris Saturday, September 19 in a 6:00 ceremony in the Hayes Barton Baptist Chapel. Dr. John W. Kincheloe assisted.

A program of wedding music was presents by Norman Acker and Miss Carolyn Brady.

Miss Mary Elizabeth Farrior attended the bride as maid of honor, and Bridesmaids were Miss Carolyn Taylor, and Miss Rebecca Straughan of Greensboro. Miss Alice Julien was flower girl.

Lawrence Harris of Charleston, S. C. was best man and ushers were Charles Welling of Charlotte, Conrad Martin of Orangeburg, S. C., and Edward Murray.

Immediately following the ceremony the bride's parents entertained at a reception in the church parlor.

Mrs. Harris was graduated from Meredith College and was employed here as manager of the book and supply store.

The groom was graduated from The Citadel with a degree in Civil Engineering. He is employed with the Wannamaker and Wills Construction Company of Orangeburg.

MR. WADE RENFROW VICTIM OF ACCIDENT

Wade Renfrow, an inspector for the State Utilities Commission, died September 17, as a result of an automobile accident in Loris, South Carolina. Mr. Renfrow was formerly a newspaper publisher in High Point. He was the husband of Mrs. Lois Setzer Renfrow who is secretary to Dr. Carlyle Campbell at Meredith.

Surviving besides his wife are: a daughter, Mrs. Harold Farlow; a son, Robert Perry Renfrow; four sisters, Mrs. J. M. Newsom and Mrs. Forrest H. Shuford, both of Raleigh, Mrs. Dwight L. Johnson and Mrs. George R. Howard; two brothers, Ben S. Renfrow and William F. Renfrow.

Home Economics Club Welcomes Transfers

The Home Economics Club welcomes three transfer students to their department. They are Carol Rovilla Meyers from Gardner-Webb College; Oveda June Holstead, a graduate of Peace College; and Virginia Mumford, a graduate of Mars Hill College.

All three girls were very active in Home Economics Club work at their respective colleges.

Virginia Mumford is the former treasurer of the North Carolina State Home Economics Club.

MILTON CLASS HAS SMALL ENROLLMENT

The English course in John Milton works has an enrollment of three this term. They are Grace Cook, a junior English major, Phyllis Tribble, a senior religion major, and Lorette Oglesby, senior English major.

The course is taught at 8:30 on Monday, Wednesday and Friday by Dr. Lanham.

Room Check Regulations Announced By Mrs. Mayes

Room check for all students, conducted by Mrs. Mayes, house director, was started on Sept. 21. The rooms are checked several days a week for cleanliness and general neatness. The inspection is unannounced. A perfect grade of A is given to a completely neat room. When there is dust on the furniture or floor, a grade of B is given. Further untidiness lowers the grade. Appearance of coke bottles in the room or outside the door and unmade beds merit a D. F's are given for general disorder.

JOINT SOCIETY HALL IS REDECORATED

Society Hall, formerly known as Phi Hall, was partly redecorated during the summer. Two walls of the large room were painted light blue, the other two rose, and the ceiling white. Venetian blinds were installed at each window of the hall.

Plans are being made for the purchasing of new drapes, repainting of chairs and adding of odd pieces of furniture.

The societies agreed to use the same hall this year in order to leave the old Astro Hall free as an overflow stack room for the growing college library. In return, the college agreed to rededicate the joint hall.

The society meetings will be rearranged for the year, so that the two groups will use the hall on separate nights.

BARTER THEATRE TO COME TO MEREDITH

Mrs. Evelyn da Parma, head of the dramatics department, announces the coming of the Barter Theatre to the Meredith campus for two productions this year.

On November 6 this nationally

Trudy Fitzgerald, Charleen Swanzey Win Literary Awards

Trudy Fitzgerald and Charleen Swanzey received the annual Phi and Astro awards society night. Each society offers this five dollar award to the person within the society who submits the best literary composition.

Charleen Swanzey, a senior from Charlotte, received her award from Adele Buening, former Astro president. Her winning poem "Counsel of Spring," which is written in free verse contains one hundred lines and tells the story of a storm. Charleen, an English major, is also interested in ballet and art. She wrote her own choreography for the dance she did in the May Day program last spring. This year she is the art editor of the "Acorn."

Trudy Fitzgerald

Trudy Fitzgerald who is from Gretna, Virginia, captured Phi honors with her story "Belle." The award was presented by Connie Moore last year's president of the Phi society. Trudy, a junior, has English as her major subject with psychology and religion as related fields. Trudy likes to read, is interested in music and especially likes to do original compositions. Her extra-curricular activities include reporting for "The Twig" and work on the BSU Council.

Charleen Swanzey

known group will present "Ah, Wilderness" by Eugene O'Neill. Shakespeare's "Two Gentleman of Verona" will be the spring production slated for February 24.

Student and faculty tickets will be on sale soon.

DROP IN OR CALL
Merle Norman
Cosmetic Studio
Costume Jewelry
25 W. Hargett St. Phone 3-3274
Courtesy Demonstrations
Without Obligation

BOSSE JEWELERS
★
333 Fayetteville Street
Raleigh, North Carolina

MAN-MUR SHOE SHOP
TROY D. SMITH, Owner
INVISIBLE SHOE REPAIRING
Work Done While You Wait
AGENTS FOR CAROLINA CLEANERS
Phone 7330      2516 Hillsboro St.
"When You Get a Good Thing, Remember Where You Got It"

Visit Our
NEW SPORTSWEAR DEPARTMENT
For Your Campus Togs
Miriam's
FASHION SHOP
CAMERON VILLAGE      RALEIGH, N. C.      PHONE 3-3851

"WELCOME BACK"
"Everything for the Artist"
COME IN AND BROWSE
MOBLEY'S
113 SOUTH SALISBURY STREET
PHONE 2-4775      RALEIGH, N. C.

WILLETT'S Village BEAUTY SHOP
2010 Cameron Street
Raleigh, N. C.
Permanent Waves
$5.00 up
PHONE 3-9735

MISS BREWER TALKS TO HOSTESSES

Miss Ellen Brewer, head of the home economics department instructed the dining room hostess recently on the best practical table manners to be used at Meredith.

The hostesses are member of the senior class, largely. Some juniors are included in the group, however.

Two hostesses are assigned to each table and are thereafter held responsible for being there and keeping the table in order.

This training class is a part of a large program of social education being undertaken by the Social Standards Committee headed by Jane Williamson.

MEREDITH STABLES

(Continued from page one)
"horseback fever" from their children.

Regular classes are being conducted on the same schedule that was used last year. One morning class at 9:30 and afternoon classes at 2:00 and 3:00 are open to college students. Town students have classes at 4:00 Monday through Thursday and on Saturday morning. The stables are closed on Friday for clean-up purposes.

The center isle of the barn was re-done during the summer. New fronts were put on the stalls, the top was ceiled, and all was varnished.

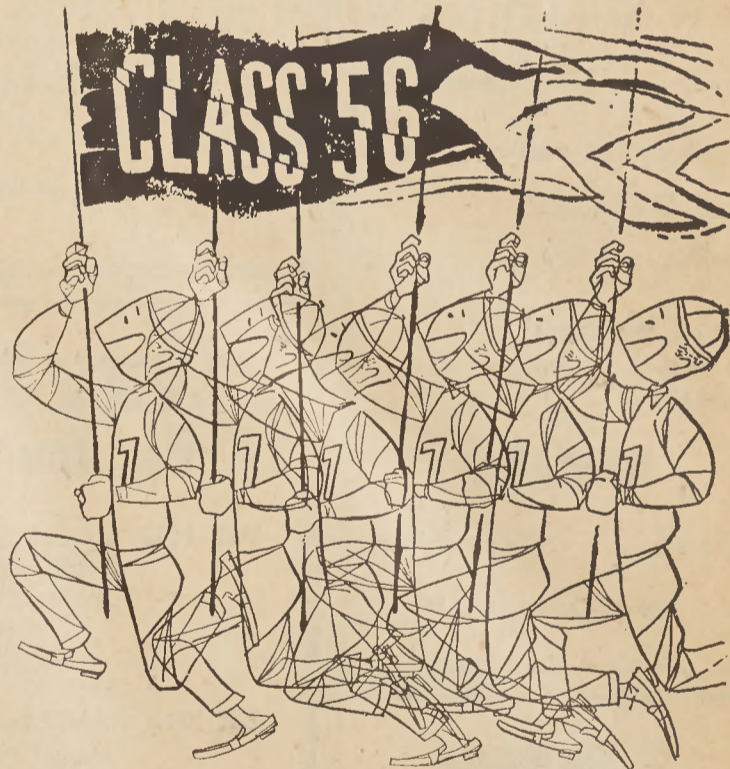

A fine Tennessee walking mare has been added to the stables and Mabel, a reddish mare who was here last year, is now being used for classes.

Miss MacKay, riding instructor reports that Early Bird, the colt born to Byrd and Captain Danger last spring is almost ready for a saddle.

HOCKEY GAME SCHEDULE

Hockey manager Catherine McRacken announces a hockey game with Duke University on October 21 on the Duke hockey field. The varsity are hard at work practicing for the game.

Uzzles' Soda Shop
Below Varsity Theater
A GOOD PLACE TO MEET and EAT
2412 Hillsboro St.      PHONE 4-9392

When you pause...make it count...have a Coke

BOTTLED UNDER AUTHORITY OF THE COCA-COLA COMPANY BY

"Coke" is a registered trade-mark.

© 1953, THE COCA-COLA COMPANY